Stalky and Co. - Rudyard Kipling Rudyard Kipling, 2010 A passage from the book in summer all right minded boys built huts in the furze hill behind the College little lairs whittled out of the heart of the prickly bushes full of stumps odd root ends and spikes but since they were strictly forbidden palaces of delight And for the fifth summer in succession Stalky McTurk and Beetle this was before they reached the dignity of a study had built like beavers a place of retreat and meditation where they smoked Now there was nothing in their characters as known to Mr Prout their house master at all commanding respect nor did Foxy the subtle red haired school Sergeant trust them His business was to wear tennis shoes carry binoculars and swoop hawklike upon evil boys Had he taken the field alone that hut would have been raided for Foxy knew the manners of his quarry but Providence moved Mr Prout whose school name derived from the size of his feet was Hooper to investigate on his own account and it was the cautious Stalky who found the track of his pugs on the very floor of their lair one peaceful afternoon when Stalky would fain have forgotten Prout and his works in a volume of Surtees and a new briar wood pipe Crusoe at sight of the footprint did not act more swiftly than Stalky He removed the pipes swept up all loose match ends and departed to warn Beetle and McTurk      Stalky and Co.
