Lovelace (Jr.),1979 An extensive collection of significant documents covering all major and minor issues and events regarding terrorism Government reports executive orders speeches court proceedings and position papers are presented in full text reprint Oceana Website FAR Horizons Foreign Area Research Coordination Group,National Security Council (U.S.). Subcommittee on Foreign Affairs Research,1971 FAR Horizons ,1973 First no of each vol contains index to previous vol FAR Horizons United States. National Security Council. Subcommittee on Foreign Affairs Research,1968 The Birth of the New Justice Mark Lewis,2014-02-13 Until 1919 European wars were settled without post war trials and individuals were not punishable under international law After World War One European jurists at the Paris Peace Conference developed new concepts of international justice to deal with violations of the laws of war Though these were not implemented for political reasons later jurists applied these ideas to other problems writing new laws and proposing various types of courts to maintain the post World War One political order They also aimed to enhance internal state security address states failures to respect minority rights or rectify irregularities in war crimes trials after World War Two The Birth of the New Justice shows that legal organizations were not merely interested in ensuring that the guilty were punished or that international peace was assured They hoped to instill particular moral values represent the interests of certain social groups and even pursue national agendas When jurists had to scale back their projects it was not only because state governments opposed them It was also because they lacked political connections and did not build public support for their ideas In some cases they decided that compromises were better than nothing Rather than arguing that new legal projects were spearheaded by state governments motivated by liberal legalism Mark Lewis shows that legal organizations had a broad range of ideological motives liberal conservative utopian humanitarian nationalist and particularist The International Law Association the International Association of Penal Law the World Jewish Congress and the International Committee of the Red Cross transformed the concept of international violation to deal with new political and moral problems They repeatedly altered the purpose of an international criminal court sometimes dropping it altogether when national courts seemed more pragmatic
