Aurobindo's integral work on religion arising out of the Vedānta tradition critiques the condition of secularity that undergirds the religious/secular debate. Finally informed by the hermeneutical tradition and building on the methodological insights from Aurobindo's integral method, the book explores a hermeneutical approach for the study of religion which is dialogical in nature. This book will be of interest to academics studying Religious Studies, Philosophy of Religion, Continental Hermeneutics, Modern India, Modern Hinduism, as well as South Asian Studies.
