stopovers for south shore Haudenosaunee on their way to and from the beaver hunt beyond the lower Great Lakes The Cayuga village of Kent was where in 1668 the Sulpicians established a mission by the same name which became the basis for the region's later name of Quinte In 1676 a short lived subsidiary mission was established at Teiaiagon It appears that most of the north shore villages were abandoned by 1688 This volume brings together traditional Indigenous knowledge as well as documentary and recent archaeological evidence of this period and focuses on describing the historical context and efforts to find the settlements and presents examinations of the unique material culture found at them and at similar communities in the Haudenosaunee homeland Available formats trade paperback and accessible PDF History of Des Moines County, Iowa Augustine M.
