Basic Issues in Medieval Philosophy - Second Edition Richard N. Bosley, Martin M. Tweedale, 2006-05-09 In this important collection the editors argue that medieval philosophy is best studied as an interactive discussion between thinkers working on very much the same problems despite being often widely separated in time or place Each section opens with at least one selection from a classical philosopher and there are many points at which the readings chosen refer to other works that the reader will also find in this collection There is a considerable amount of material from central figures such as Augustine Abelard Duns Scotus and William of Ockham as well as extensive texts from thinkers in the medieval Islamic world Each selection is prefaced by a brief introduction by the editors providing a philosophical and religious background to help make the material more accessible to the reader This edition updated throughout contains a substantial new chapter on medieval psychology and philosophy of mind with texts from authors not previously represented such as John Buridan and Peter John Olivi

Nietzsche and the Shadow of God Didier Franck, 2012 In Nietzsche and the Shadow of God Nietzsche et l'ombre de Dieu his study of Nietzsche's integral philosophical corpus Franck revisits the fundamental concepts of Nietzsche's thought from the death of God and the will to power to the body as the seat of thinking and valuing and finally to his conception of a post-Christian justice The work engages Heidegger's interpretation of Nietzsche's destruction of the Platonic Christian worldview showing how Heidegger's hermeneutic overlooked Nietzsche's powerful confrontation with revelation and justice by working through the Christian body as set forth in the Epistles of Saint Paul and reread both by Martin Luther and by German Idealism Franck shows systematically how Nietzsche transvalued the metaphysical tenets of the Christian body of believers In so doing he provides an unparalleled demonstration of the coherence of Nietzsche's project and the ways in which the revaluation of values amor fati and the trials of eternal recurrence reshape the living self toward a creative existence beyond original sin indeed beyond an ethics of good versus evil Bergo and Farah's clear translation introduces this work to an English speaking audience for the first time

Economy and Nature in the Fourteenth Century Joel Kaye, 2000-10-05 This book provides perspectives on the ways in which scholastic natural philosophy anticipated and contributed to the emergence of scientific thought

Givenness and Revelation Jean-Luc Marion, 2016-03-24 Givenness and Revelation represents both the unity and the deep continuity of Jean-Luc Marion's thinking over many decades This investigation into the origins and evolution of the concept of revelation arises from an initial reappraisal of the tension between natural theology and the revealed knowledge of God or sacra doctrina Marion draws on the redefinition of the notions of possibility and impossibility the critique of the reification of the subject and the unpredictability of the event in its relationship to the phenomenology of the gift This work begins and ends in the concept of revelation thus addressing the very heart and soul of Marion's theology concluding with a phenomenological approach to the Trinity that rests in the Spirit as gift Givenness and Revelation enhances not only our understanding of religious experience but enlarges the horizon of possibility of phenomenology itself

The Mystical Element of Religion: Critical studies Friedrich Freiherr von Hügel, 1908

The Quest for the Christ Child in the Later Middle Ages Mary Dzon, 2017-03-09 Beginning in the twelfth century clergy and laity alike started wondering with intensity about the historical and developmental details of Jesus' early life Was the Christ Child like other children whose characteristics and capabilities depended on their age Was he sweet and tender or formidable and powerful Not finding sufficient information in the Gospels which are almost completely silent about Jesus' childhood medieval Christians turned to centuries-old apocryphal texts for answers In The Quest for the Christ Child in the Later Middle Ages

Mary Dzon demonstrates how these apocryphal legends fostered a vibrant and creative medieval piety Popular tales about the Christ Child entertained the laity and at the same time were reviled by some members of the intellectual elite of the church In either case such legends so persistent left their mark on theological devotional and literary texts The Cistercian abbot Aelred of Rievaulx urged his monastic readers to imitate the Christ Child's development through spiritual growth Francis of Assisi encouraged his followers to emulate the Christ Child's poverty and rusticity Thomas Aquinas for his part believed that apocryphal stories about the Christ Child would encourage youths to be presumptuous while Birgitta of Sweden provided pious alternatives in her many Marian revelations Through close readings of such writings Dzon explores the continued transmission and appeal of apocryphal legends throughout the Middle Ages and demonstrates the significant impact that the Christ Child had in shaping the medieval religious imagination The Photian Schism Francis

Dvornik, 1948 Renewing Our Hope Robert Barron, 2020-08-12 In a time of discouragement how can the Church renew itself and its outreach to all people Bishop Robert Barron Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles insists that a dumbed down Catholicism cannot succeed in today's highly educated society instead the Church needs to draw upon its great theological heritage in order to renew its hope in Christ With Renewing Our Hope Essays for the New Evangelization Bishop Barron traces this renewal through four stages Renewing Our Mission lays out the challenges that call for Catholics to become more aware of their own intellectual resources in encountering the Nones Renewing Our Minds showcases the importance of theological reflection as a font of wisdom and sanity in the Church touching on Thomas Aquinas Hans Urs von Balthasar the recently canonized John Henry Newman and Pope Francis In Renewing the Church he proceeds to look at how Scripture the family the seminary and Catholic college graduates can each contribute to this renewal Finally in Renewing Our Culture he returns to the judgments Catholics must make in assessing contemporary culture specifically family life liberalism relativism and surprisingly the beauty of cinema Bishop Barron known as the host of the Catholicism PBS video series was previously rector and professor of systematic theology at Mundelein Seminary outside Chicago Illinois He demonstrates again in Renewing Our Hope his ability to make the fruits of his wide reading accessible to a broad audience while still giving his academic colleagues much to consider Creative Mythology Joseph Campbell, 1991-11-01 This volume explores the whole inner story of modern culture since the Dark Ages treating modern man's unique position as the creator of his own mythology The Mystical Element of Religion as Studied in Saint Catherine of Genoa and Her Friends

Friedrich Freiherr von Hügel, 1923 Statecraft as Soulcraft George F. Will, 1984-05-17 George F Will purports that the proper goals of statecraft are justice social cohesion and national strength Therefore he urges the development of a conservatism with a kindly face capable of respecting private enterprise and at the same time espousing an affirmative doctrine of the welfare state which Will sees as an embodiment of the wholesome ethic of common provision Proper government involves the cultivation of good character in citizens This is what is meant by statecraft as soulcraft God,

Evil, and Human Learning Fred Berthold Jr., 2012-02-01 God Evil and Human Learning explores the age old question How is it possible to believe in the God of the Christian faith when the world contains so many grievous evils Author Fred Berthold Jr examines the most influential argument used by Christian theologians to answer that question the free will defense which holds that God is not responsible for the evil in the world but that evil arises from the human misuse of free will He points out the weaknesses of this defense and provides a more adequate concept of free will Berthold argues that free will is a complex of abilities which are acquired if acquired through human learning in the context of experiences of actual goods and evils and their consequences He revises the free will defense and offers a new view of the relationship between God and his creatures
