Stadtischer Wohnbau In Agypten:

The Archaeology of Egypt in the Third Intermediate Period James Edward Bennett, 2019-09-26 This book is aimed at students teachers and academics who have an interest in the study of urbanism in Egypt and the ancient world This book provides for the first time an up to date comprehensive analysis of Egyptian urbanism during the Third Intermediate Period 1076 664 BCE

The Monastic Landscape of Late Antique Egypt Darlene L. Brooks Hedstrom, 2017-11-23 This book traces changing perceptions of Egypt s monastic landscape through an analysis of archaeological and documentary evidence from late antiquity

The Archaeology of Urbanism in Ancient Egypt Nadine Moeller, 2016-04-18 This book presents the latest archaeological evidence that makes a case for Egypt as an early urban society It traces the emergence of urban features during the Predynastic Period up to the disintegration of the powerful Middle Kingdom state ca 3500 1650 BC

The Egyptian World Toby Wilkinson, 2007-09-18 The Egyptian World provides an authoritative exploration of Ancient Egyptian civilization The volume covers seven broad themes with each section allowing specialists to focus on a particular topic

Settlements of the Ptolemies Katja Mueller, 2006 Unlike the Seleukid s the Ptolemies did not at first glance create numerous eye catching cities

Akhenaten Dominic Montserrat, 2014-05-01 The pharaoh Akhenaten who ruled Egypt in the mid fourteenth century BCE has been the subject of more speculation than any other character in Egyptian history This provocative new biography examines both the real Akhenaten and the myths that have been created around him It scrutinises the history of the pharaoh and his reign which has been continually written in Eurocentric terms inapplicable to ancient Egypt and the archaeology of Akhenaten s capital city Amarna It goes on to explore the pharaoh s extraordinary cultural afterlife and the way he has been invoked to validate everything from psychoanalysis to racial equality to Fascism

Tutankhamun Martin Bommas, 2024-12-02 Over a century after his discovery this comprehensive biography of Tutankhamun explores a wealth of evidence including archaeological and ancient textual sources DNA analysis and CT scanning bringing to life a pharaoh who has remained elusive apart from his grandiose tomb treasures For the first time this volume identifies the names of Tutankhamun s biological parents tracing the footsteps of his short life that was marked by genetic defects and physical deterioration Between his early days and his untimely death Tutankhamun previously Tutankhaten appears as a child of his time he was torn between the cult of the Aten and the restoration of the cult of Amun a campaign in which he personally played a leading role Equipped with a thorough education gifted with a brilliant mind and living mostly in solitude readers will follow in detail how Tutankhamun secured the survival of the 18th Dynasty This book traces Tutankhamun s involvement in processes which can still be felt in Egypt today His complex personality is reconstructed based on archaeological evidence some of which has never been discussed previously and conclusions drawn from both scientific research and a deep understanding of the context in which he lived By also considering the lives of those who were close to the teenage king this book delivers a comprehensive source based biography of an ancient Egyptian pharaoh Complete with intensive references to international scholarship visual sources and maps and excluding the tomb treasures created after his physical death this book is a fresh and original approach to understanding the life not afterlife of the most popular pharaoh of modern times Tutankhamun A Biography is suitable for students scholars and non specialist readers interested in the life of Tutankhamun as well as those working on ancient Egyptian history and religion more broadly particularly that of New Kingdom Egypt Akhenaten and the Religion of Light Erik Hornung,2001 Akhenaten also known as Amenhotep IV was king of Egypt during the Eighteenth Dynasty and reigned from 1375 to 1358 B C E Called the religious revolutionary he is the earliest known creator of a new religion The cult he founded broke with Egypt s traditional polytheism and focused its worship on a single deity the sun god Aten Erik Hornung one of the world s preeminent Egyptologists here offers a concise and accessible account of Akhenaten and his religion of light Hornung begins with a discussion of the nineteenth century scholars who laid the foundation for our knowledge of Akhenaten s period and extends to the most recent archaeological finds He emphasizes that Akhenaten s monotheistic theology represented the first attempt in history to explain the entire natural and human world on the basis of a single principle Akhenaten made light the absolute reference point Hornung writes and it is astonishing how clearly and consistently he pursued this concept Hornung also addresses such topics as the origins of the new religion profound changes in beliefs regarding the afterlife and the new Egyptian capital at Akhetaten which was devoted to the service of Aten his prophet Akhenaten and the latter s family Theban Desert Road Survey II John Coleman Darnell,2013-12-31 The second monograph devoted to the work of the Theban Desert Road Survey presents the major rock inscriptions of the northwestern Theban Desert and the western hinterlands of Qamula The material includes six larger sites and several smaller collections and individual inscriptions and images sites discovered by the Theban Desert Road Survey over the course of approximately twelve field seasons The major groupings of inscriptions from south to north are the rock shrine of Pahu and the inscriptions of Gebel Akhenaton sites in the vicinity of the Wadi Himdaniya a small but interesting collection of inscriptions near the Wadi Arqub Baghla with two smaller outlying sites inscriptions of the Wadi Magar to the north including the site of the great Predynastic tableau with its plethora of crocodiles the associated vignette of Elephant on the Gebel along with the nearby Gebel Sutekh site and smaller concentrations beyond and finally the inscriptions of the area of the Matna el Barqa Highlights of the epigraphic material include new prayers to Amun and Hathor one a genuine New Kingdom de profundis recording an appeal to Amun during a storm on the Nile several important Predynastic and Protodynastic tableaux and the only rock art depictions of Akhenaton in a true Amarna style Heaven on Earth Richard Landes,2011-08-04 Millennialists through the ages have looked forward to the apocalyptic moment that will radically transform society into heaven on earth They have delivered withering critiques of their own civilizations and promised both the impending annihilation of the forces of evil and the advent of a perfect society And all their promises have invariably failed We tend therefore to dismiss these prophets of doom and salvation as crackpots and madmen and not surprisingly historians of our secular era have tended to underestimate their impact on our modern world Now Richard Landes offers a lucid and ground breaking analysis of this widely misunderstood phenomenon This long awaited study shows that many events typically regarded as secular including the French Revolution Marxism Bolshevism Nazism not only contain key millennialist elements but follow the apocalyptic curve of enthusiastic launch disappointment and often catastrophic re entry into normal time Indeed as Landes examines the explicit millennialism behind such recent events as the emergence of Global Jihad since 1979 he challenges the common notion that modern history is largely driven by secular interests By focusing on ten widely different case studies none of which come from Judaism or Christianity he shows that millennialism is not only a cultural universal but also an extremely adaptive social phenomenon that persists across the modern and post modern divides At the same time he also offers valuable insight into the social and psychological factors that drive such beliefs Ranging from ancient Egypt to modern day UFO cults and global Jihad Heaven on Earth both delivers an eye opening revisionist argument for the significance of millennialism throughout history and alerts the reader to the alarming spread of these ideologies in our world today

Sustainable Building with Earth Horst Schroeder,2015-09-28 This book provides an insightful overview of the current state of earth building The author approaches the subject from the perspective of the building material s life cycle featuring in depth explanations of the cycle s individual steps extraction and classification of construction soil production of earth building materials and earthen structures planning construction and renovation of earth buildings and demolition and recycling of earthen structures This unique resource provides examples of sophisticated earth building projects and illustrates the diverse applications of earth as a building material Compared to conventional mineral building materials earth possesses particularly positive ecological qualities such as its energy balance and recyclability Architects engineers students manufacturers and distributors of building materials building contractors building biologists public authorities and preservationists will benefit from this book s ample coverage of restoring optimizing and building with this material of the past present and future

Ancient Egyptian Materials and Technology Paul T. Nicholson,Ian Shaw,2000-03-23 The book describes current research into all aspects of craftwork in ancient Egypt Amheida II Anna Lucille Boozer,2016-01-14 This archaeological report provides a comprehensive study of the excavations carried out at Amheida House B2 in Egypt s Dakhleh Oasis between 2005 and 2007 followed by three study seasons between 2008 and 2010 The excavations at Amheida in Egypt s western desert begun in 2001 under the aegis of Columbia University and sponsored by NYU since 2008 are investigating all aspects of social life and material culture at the administrative center of ancient Trimithis The excavations so far have focused on three areas of this very large site a centrally located upper class fourth century AD house with wall paintings an adjoining school and underlying remains of a Roman bath complex a more modest house of the third century and the temple hill with remains of the Temple of Thoth built in the first century AD and of earlier structures Architectural conservation has protected and partly restored two standing funerary monuments a mud brick pyramid and a tower tomb both of the Roman period This volume presents and discusses the architecture artifacts and ecofacts recovered from B2 in a holistic manner which has rarely before been attempted in a full report on the excavation of a Romano Egyptian house The primary aim of this volume is to combine an architectural and material based study with an explicitly contextual and theoretical analysis In so doing it develops a methodology and presents a case study of how the rich material remains of Romano Egyptian houses may be used to investigate the relationship between domestic remains and social identity Journal of the American Research Center in Egypt American Research Center in Egypt,1995

Communicating the Past in the Digital Age Sebastian Hageneuer ,2020-02-06 Recent developments in the field of archaeology are not only progressing archaeological fieldwork but also changing the way we practise and present archaeology today As these digital technologies are being used more and more every day on excavations or in museums this also means that we must change the way we approach teaching and communicating archaeology as a discipline The communication of archaeology is an often neglected but ever more important part of the profession Instead of traditional lectures and museum displays we can interact with the past in various ways Students of archaeology today need to learn and understand these technologies but can on the other hand also profit from them in creative ways of teaching and learning The same holds true for visitors to a museum This volume presents the outcome of a two day international symposium on digital methods in teaching and learning in archaeology held at the University of Cologne in October 2018 addressing exactly this topic Specialists from around the world share their views on the newest developments in the field of archaeology and the way we teach these with the help of archaeogaming augmented and virtual reality 3D reconstruction and many more Thirteen chapters cover different approaches to teaching and learning archaeology in universities and museums and offer insights into modern day ways to communicate the past in a digital age Der Abu Ballas-Weg Frank Förster,2015-01-01 This book presents the finds and features of a Pharaonic caravan route only discovered in 1999 which leads from the Dakhla Oasis in Egypt deep into the Libyan Desert and therefore brings this area into the focus of Egyptological research for the first time Based on archaeological investigations carried out within the scope of the Collaborative Research Centre 389 ACACIA at Cologne the finds and features are thoroughly analyzed part I of the thesis followed by studies on the practical use of the trail part II and on the possible purpose and historical significance of the caravan route part III As the main result it turned out that the so called Abu Ballas Trail was an extremely difficult Pharaonic caravan route through the Libyan Desert that was used over many centuries and repeatedly took a greater significance under very specific geopolitical circumstances It appears to have served at least temporarily from the late third millennium BC onwards as a trade route in order to import luxury items such as incense ivory skins of exotic animals valuable oils and others from sub Saharan regions first to Dakhla and then further on to the Egyptian Nile Valley probably in cooperation with Libyan nomadic groups The route therefore represents the earliest evidence of trans Saharan trade currently known Its existence proves that the known world of the ancient Egyptians did not end beyond the oases of the Western Desert Eternal Egypt Edna R. Russmann, 2001 The book is published in conjunction with a traveling exhibition organized by the American Federation of Arts and The British Museum and drawn exclusively from the collection of The British Museum which is among the finest in the world Illustrated with images of the works in the exhibition as well as comparative materials Eternal Egypt is that rare book of interest and value to the general and scholarly audience alike BOOK JACKET Working in the Suburbs Anna K. Hodgkinson, 2025-04-01 A century ago Charles Leonard Woolley directed the first excavations at Amarna site M50 14 16 identifying it as a workshop for glass and faience However the archaeological record and its publication in The City of Akhenaten I were somewhat superficial New excavations conducted by the Amarna Project in 2014 and 2017 yielded extensive evidence of glass faience stone and metalworking reaffirming the site's role as a workshop These investigations also illuminated its domestic character uncovering valuable data on houses and other structural remains This volume presents a near complete record of the site offering a comprehensive archaeological and architectural evaluation alongside in depth analyses of material culture including archaeobotany charcoal animal bones ceramics and other artefacts The individual chapters reconstruct the chaînes opératoires of various craft production activities Additionally the organisation of production and the concept of cross craft interaction are explored as the site is situated within the broader industrial network of Amarna This volume furthermore provides an in depth examination of the inhabitants' roles and daily lives enriching our understanding of this significant site

Vernacular Mud Brick Architecture in the Dakhleh Oasis, Egypt and the Design of the Dakhleh Oasis Training and Archaeological Conservation Centre Wolf Schijns, Olaf E. Kaper, Joris Kila, 2008 More than one third of the world's population lives in houses made of unfired earth bricks or stamped earth materials also known as mud brick adobe terre crue pis or rammed earth Houses in the middle east have been made out of this material for at least 10 000 years but in many places this form of architecture is slowly being superseded by more recent building techniques using reinforced concrete and concrete blocks This study contains a description of the remaining mud brick architecture in several villages in the Dakhleh Oasis in Egypt It includes a brief history of mud brick a discussion of the distinct local building techniques of the Oasis and three architectural case studies of traditional mud brick houses in the Oasis and it has many plans and photographs of local houses The study was carried out as preparation for the design and construction of an archaeological working and training centre in the Dakhleh Oasis which has been made according to the local traditions in mud brick vernacular It is based on a field trip carried out in 1997 by Wolf Schijns architect Margriet Schijns architect Olaf E Kaper Egyptologist and Joris D Kila art historian The Oxford Encyclopedia of Ancient Egypt: G-O Donald B. Redford, 2001 This text includes substantial entries from all disciplines on the topic of ancient Egypt Among the multitude of subjects covered are religion and mythology medicine art archaeology sociology trade and commerce dialects and agriculture
