Dialogue in Organizations M. Reitz, 2015-04-14 In politics business and society better leadership and dialogue are seen as antidotes to the paradoxical issues of the modern world This book illustrates how the compulsion for busyness the assumptions about who leaders are and the adherence to implicitly held cultural norms threaten the possibility of effective dialogue in organizations

Learning in the Making Jackie Gerstein, 2019-08-27 Making is a dynamic and hands on learning experience that directly connects with long established theories of how learning occurs Although it hasn't been a focus of traditional education or had a prominent place in the classroom teachers find it an accessible exciting option for their students The maker movement brings together diverse communities dedicated to creating things through hands on projects Makers represent a growing community of builders and creators engineers scientists artists DIYers and hobbyists of all ages interests and skill levels who engage in experimentation and cooperation Transferring this innovative collaborative and creative mindset to the classroom is the goal of maker education A makerspace isn't about the latest tools and equipment Rather it's about the learning experiences and opportunities provided to students Maker education spaces can be as large as a school workshop with high tech tools e.g. 3D printers and laser cutters or as small and low tech as the corner of a classroom with bins of craft supplies Ultimately it's about the mindset not the stuff In Learning in the Making Jackie Gerstein helps you plan execute facilitate and reflect on maker experiences so both you and your students understand how the knowledge skills and attitudes of maker education transfer to real world settings She also shows how to seamlessly integrate these activities into your curriculum with intention and a clearly defined purpose

Research and Discussions in Critical Discourses and Remedies in Global Health Education Ashti A. Doobay-Persaud, Tracy L. Rabin, Tomlin Paul, Jessica Evert, Benedicta Ayiedu Mensah, 2024-10-01 Global Health a field of study research and practice defined in 2009 with precursors in international health and development is currently reckoning with itself The field has well intended goals emphasizing collaboration and dialogue between population health public health clinical care and other disciplines to address socioeconomic determinants of health and employing interdisciplinary approaches to address health inequities wherever they exist Despite these lofty ideals there are concerns that the field itself has historically served to reinforce rather than deconstruct colonialism and power imbalances At this point in time the field has evolved toward a vision of a community of practice between institutions across the income spectrum HIC LMIC LIC working in bidirectional and multidirectional ways to develop staff staff space systems and strategies to eliminate health disparities However with deeply rooted colonial assumptions racism elitism and other forms of bias underlying institutions and individuals initiatives operating under the auspices of Global Health are all too often antithetical to the pursuit itself

Diversity, Fear and Religions Gennaro Gervasio, Maria Chiara Giorda, Paola Perucchini, 2025-07-30. This book investigates ways the Other can be both a cause of and an answer to religious and cultural fears. The multi-layered question of cultural and religious diversity has received some attention recently both in academic and policy circles. The authors of this work address this issue by focusing on fears and phobias and the ways they are historically and sociologically produced and reproduced in a Global Era. The volume presents examples of fears related to different cultures and religions from a multidisciplinary perspective. Some of these have been provoked or sublimated by religious fundamentalisms and a double ignorance that is ignorance of and about fundamentalisms which have helped feed these collective concerns. Through a sample of stereotypes, mystifications and simplifications the authors look at Islam as a focal lens for showing the current power of globalized collective fears. The collection also explores possible cultural antidotes to these phobias such as the need for awareness and familiarity with diversities based on an education accepting of interculturality and plural citizenship. The book will be essential reading for academics, researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Intercultural Pedagogy, History, Anthropology and Sociology of Religions, Law and Religion, Contemporary Islam, Migration Studies, Interreligious Dialogue and Ethnography.
