Tarnished Beginnings Tairin Jabari was born in a caravan and has always believed she's Romani Why wouldn't she Her mother and father never suggested otherwise The Rom have harsh rules When Tairin's first shift catches her unaware at thirteen her father disappears and the elders move with deadly speed to punish her mother for mating outside the blood decoration elements but as components of an integral composition The background of this composition is argued to be a view of life in the hereafter in which the deceased is involved in an unending cycle of ritual action which reflects the funerary rituals that were actually performed on earth On the one hand these netherworldly rituals aim at bringing the deceased to new life by mummification on the other the newly regenerated deceased partakes in embalming rituals for gods representing his dead father Osiris or Atum These gods in their turn effectuate the deceased's regeneration The entire process results in a cycle of resuscitation in which the afterlife of the deceased and of the father gods are interdependent The sociological bias of this interpretation with its emphasis on kinship relations differs significantly from earlier attempts to explain Egyptian funerary religion
