Turkish Higher Education Policy Practice in Action and Future Directions comprehensively examines the EMI phenomenon by taking Turkey as a case study and it exclusively explores existing issues against different conceptual frameworks and theoretical foundations. It also explores novel issues around EMI such as EMI assessment, EMI classroom interaction and technology enhanced EMI teacher training. Written by established experts in the field, this volume will be of particular interest to scholars of English for Academic Purposes, English Medium Instruction and Applied Linguistics as well as postgraduate students of Applied Linguistics, English as a Lingua Franca, English for Academic Purposes and language and education policy. The book might also appeal to policy makers both in Turkey and in international education seeking blueprints to align their avowed principles and ground realities for purposes of effective practices.

Short Films in Language Teaching Engelbert Thaler, 2017-07-17. The second volume in the new academic series SELT Studies in English Language Teaching is also divided into three parts: A Theory, B Methodology, C Classroom. Part A highlights the topic from the perspectives of different academic disciplines; in this case, from a TEFL as well as from a film didactic and a cultural literary viewpoint. In part B, methodological contributions on selected short films and suitable procedures are assembled. Part C is a collection of concrete sample lessons for teaching English with short films at various levels. These lesson plans have been designed at university, carried out and evaluated by 11 experienced teachers and finally revised by the editor. Peer reviewing is guaranteed by an academic advisory council consisting of six well-known TEFL professors. The new series above all aims at bridging didactic research and classroom practice. Thus, it is intended for foreign language lecturers, students, teacher trainers and teachers.
