Historical Dictionary of Daoism Ronnie L.

Littlejohn, 2019-11-29 Daoism is the oldest indigenous philosophic spiritual tradition of China and one of the most ancient of the world s spiritual structures The name Daoism comes from the term dao which means a way or a road through the field or woods to one s village It is also means the way to do something such as how a master craftsman carves wood makes a bell or even butchers an ox But dao is also a nominative in the history of Daoism referring to the energizing process that permeates and animates all of reality and moves it along However both text and practice in this tradition insist that dao itself cannot be described in words it is not God in the sense of Western philosophy or religion Daoism has no supreme being even if there is an extensive grammar about nominally self conscious entities and powers for which the Chinese use the word spirit shen For example the highest powers of Daoism are variously called Taishang Laojun the deified Laozi the Celestial Worthy of Primordial Beginning Yuanshi tianzun the Jade Emperor Yuhuang Shangdi or the Perfected Warrior Zhenwu But these are expressions of dao in specific shen they are not identical to Dao except in the most unique case when Laozi the putative founder of Daoism and author of its major work Daodejing is said to be one with the dao Historical Dictionary of Daoism contains a chronology an introduction appendixes an extensive bibliography and more than 400 cross referenced entries related to the Chinese belief and worldview known as Daoism including dozens of Daoist terms names and practices This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Daoism Research in Education ,1972-05 Teaching Chinese Language in Singapore Kaycheng Soh,2020-01-11 This book addresses the problems and issues surrounding teaching Chinese as a second language in the Singapore context It identifies four main areas of concern 1 Neglect of culture in the teaching of Chinese 2 Difficulty of learning Hanzi Chinese characters 3 Cognitive and affective aspects of Chinese language learning and 4 Authenticity of the Chinese language in a global and Singapore context The book includes lesson design and instructional practices for re prioritizing Chinese as a set of trainable skills as well as teaching culture in the context of teaching the language It also introduces the Chinese as a Second Language Readability Formula to help learners overcome their difficulties with learning Hanzi Chinese characters and the Attitude Toward Chinese Language Scale to help understand the various factors that can influence Chinese language learning It also proposes a student oriented model for conducting problem based research tapping into the disciplines of psycholinguistics and sociolinguistics Resolving or minimizing the issues identified here requires action at the macro level by Chinese language researchers on a national scale and at the micro level by classroom teachers through action research
