Re: File Nos. EB-08-SE-1067-1075, 1077-1078

Dear Chairman and Commissioners:

On October 30, 2008, the FCC's Enforcement Bureau issued Letters of Inquiry ("LOIs") to 11 NCTA member companies and, according to press reports, at least two other cable companies. The NCTA member companies are: Bend Cable Communications, Bright House Networks, Cablevision Systems, Charter Communications, Comcast Corporation, Cox Communications, GCI, Harroon Entertainment Company, Midcontinent Communications, Suddenlink Communications, and Time Warner Cable. Press reports indicate that RCN Corporation and Verizon Communications also received LOIs.¹ Together these companies serve more than 86 percent of the nation's cable customers.

I am writing to express deep concern with the issuance of these LOIs. NCTA and its members do not contest the Commission's authority to inquire into the cable industry's digital migration and its impact on consumers. Indeed, we welcome the opportunity to describe an evolution that will bring numerous benefits to consumers and are willing, as always, to meet with the Chairman, individual Commissioners, or the Media Bureau to discuss the digital migration, which we believe is plainly in the public interest. That said, we have serious concerns concerning the method selected by the Commission to gather information on this subject, in particular the issuance of LOIs to 13 companies to obtain industry-wide information. The appropriate vehicle for that is a Notice of Inquiry or the Commission's annual Video Competition proceeding.

Standard Of Letter Writing:

More Than Letters, Standards Edition Sally Moomaw, 2020-08-25 For decades early childhood educators in high quality programs have understood that the transition into reading and writing occurs naturally when young children are surrounded by opportunities to interact with print in ways that are meaningful to them The original edition of More Than Letters first published in 2001 showed teachers how to intentionally help children develop literacy skills through hands on play based activities Like the original edition the Standards Edition is based on theory and research It contains new chapters that specifically focus on developing the skills needed to decode literature and informational text Expanded chapters include activities that target specific concepts included in national literacy standards

The New Century Standard

Letter-Writer Alfred B. Chambers, 2022-08-15 In The New Century Standard Letter Writer Alfred B Chambers presents a comprehensive guide aimed at adapting the art of letter writing to the needs of the rapidly evolving 20th century The book deftly integrates practical advice with exemplars that span a variety of contexts from personal correspondence to formal business communication Chambers employs a clear precise literary style reflecting a transitional moment in communication practices as the world embraced modernity This treatise serves both as a practical resource and a mirror to the societal values of its time illustrating the importance of eloquent yet accessible communication in fostering relationships and conducting business Alfred B Chambers an educationist and a lifelong advocate for clear communication was influenced by the technological advancements and social changes occurring during his lifetime His own experiences in teaching and administration provided him with insight into the necessity for effective written communication in an increasingly complex world By synthesizing his pedagogical background with his passion for language Chambers produced a manual that remains relevant in its principles while reflecting the norms of his epoch Readers seeking to refine their correspondence skills whether for personal development or professional advancement will find The New Century Standard Letter Writer an indispensable resource Chambers work not only equips individuals with templates and techniques but also encourages a deeper appreciation for the written word as a vital tool in human connection

Dmitry Bondarev, Alessandro Gori, Lameen Souag, 2019-04-15 Manuscript cultures based on Arabic script feature various tendencies in standardisation of orthography script types and layout Unlike previous studies this book steps outside disciplinary and regional boundaries and provides a typological cross cultural comparison of standardisation processes in twelve Arabic influenced writing traditions where different cultures languages and scripts interact A wide range of case studies give insights into the factors behind uniformity and variation in Judeo Arabic in Hebrew script South Palestinian Christian Arabic New Persian Aljamiado of the Spanish Moriscos Ottoman Turkish a single multilingual Ottoman manuscript Sino Arabic in northwest China Malay Jawi in the Moluccas Kanuri and Hausa in Nigeria Kabyle in Algeria and Ethiopian Fida script as used to transliterate Arabic One of the findings of this volume is that different domains of manuscript cultures have distinct paths of standardisation so that orthography tends to develop its own standardisation principles irrespective of norms applied to layout and script types This book will appeal to readers interested in manuscript studies sociolinguistics literacy studies and history of writing
