Television Horace Newcomb, 2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Television 2nd edition website Language, Literature and Education in Multicultural Societies Kenneth Harrow, Kizitus Mpoche, 2009-10-02 This book presents a vivid overview of linguistic literary and educational issues in a multicultural context from various perspectives These range from large scale surveys to specific analyses on aspects of language literature and education Contributions are very original and based on a common denominator Multiculturalism Despite the numerical dominance of contributions from Cameroon one of the most multilingual countries in the world this book brings together views from specialists in the different domains from several parts of the world Africa Europe and the United States of America These contributions exhibit not theoretical issues that underpin current academic debates in linguistic and literary research but also empirical and interesting data that can further be exploited to other ends Critical views on literature and postcolonialism the fears of language death with the advent of globalisation and the spread of English language the educational significance or influence of the internet the wealth of Cameroon African literature and the education of the Cameroonian African child and theoretical issues in language and literary education are themes handled here in an accessible manner to readers without previous knowledge of language science literature and education Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1966-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin's iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world British TV Comedies Juergen Kamm, Birgit Neumann, 2016-01-26 This collection offers an overview of British TV comedies ranging from the beginnings of sitcoms in the 1950s to the current boom of Britcoms It provides in depth analyses of major comedies systematically addressing their generic properties filmic history humour politics and cultural impact American Remakes of British Television Carlen Lavigne, Heather Marcovitch, 2011-03-31 Ever since Norman Lear remade the BBC series Till Death Us Do Part into All in the Family American remakes of British television shows have become part of the American cultural fabric Indeed some of the programs currently said to exemplify American tastes and attitudes from reality programs like American Idol and What Not to Wear to the mock documentary approach of The Office are adaptations of successful British shows Carlen Lavigne and Heather Marcovitch's American Remakes of British Television Transformations and Mistranslations is a multidisciplinary collection of essays that focuses on questions raised when a foreign show is adapted for the American market What does it mean to remake a television program What does the process of Americanization entail What might the success or failure of a remade series tell us about the differences between American and British producers and audiences This volume examines British to American television remakes from 1971 to the present The American remakes in this volume do not share a common genre format or even level of critical or popular acclaim What these programs do have in common however is the sense that something in the original has been significantly changed in order to make the program appealing or accessible to American audiences The contributors display a multitude of perspectives in their essays British to American television remakes as a whole are explained in terms of the market forces and international trade that make these productions financially desirable Sanford and Son is examined in terms of race and class issues Essays on Life on Mars and Doctor Who stress television s role in shaping collective cultural memories An essay on Queer as Folk explores the romance genre and also talks about differences in national sexual politics An examination of The Office discusses how the American remake actually endorses the bureaucracy that the British original satiri

Congruence in Contact-Induced Language Change Juliane Besters-Dilger, Cynthia Dermarkar, Stefan Pfänder, Achim Rabus, 2014-01-31 Modern contact linguistics has primarily focused on contact between languages that are genetically unrelated and structurally distant This compendium of articles looks instead at the effects of pre existing structural congruency between the affected languages at the time of their initial contact using the Romance and Slavic languages as examples In contact of this kind both genetic and typological similarities play a part Cross-Gender Shakespeare and English National Identity E. Klett, 2009-06-22 This book examines contemporary female portrayals of male Shakespearean roles and shows how these performances invite audiences to think differently about Shakespeare the English nation and themselves
