The Life of Nyanatiloka Thera Nyanatiloka Thera & Hellmuth Hecker & Bhikkhu Nyanatusita, 2008 Ven Nyanatiloka was one of the pioneers of Buddhism in the modern world and the first European Buddhist monk. As the world's senior Western bhikkhu ordained in 1903, Nyanatiloka attracted many disciples through whose work his influence continues to be felt today more than fifty years after his death. Nyanatiloka was also a renowned scholar and translator of Pali scriptures. His classic The Word of the Buddha written more than a century ago is still widely read. The core of this volume consists of a translation of Nyanatiloka's autobiography written in German when he was forty-eight. The remaining thirty-one years of his life from 1926 until 1957 are presented as a biographical postscript drawn from other sources. The story of Nyanatiloka's life provides an inspiring example of one man's ability to put aside his cultural doubts and hesitations and embrace wholeheartedly a non-Western system of values, ideas, and practices. The greatest hardships do not seem to deter him any more than his achievements appear to go to his head. For those who have not experienced the turmoil and uncertainty of war and are accustomed to instant access of information through the internet, Nyanatiloka's accomplishments are all the more remarkable. The Life of Nyanatiloka Thera offers a fascinating insight into the formative period of Europe's encounter with the Dhamma.

Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Arts of Allusion Margaret S. Graves, 2018-07-31 The art of the object reached unparalleled heights in the medieval Islamic world yet the intellectual dimensions of ceramics metalwares and other plastic arts in this milieu have not always been acknowledged Arts of Allusion reveals the object as a crucial site where pre modern craftsmen of the eastern Mediterranean and Persianate realms engaged in fertile dialogue with poetry literature painting and perhaps most strikingly architecture Lanterns fashioned after miniature shrines incense burners in the form of domed monuments earthenware jars articulated with arches and windows inkwells that allude to tents through close studies of objects from the ninth to the thirteenth centuries this book reveals that allusions to architecture abound across media in the portable arts of the medieval Islamic world Arts of Allusion draws upon a broad range of material evidence as well as medieval texts to locate its subjects in a cultural landscape where the material visual and verbal realms were intertwined Moving far beyond the initial identification of architectural types with their miniature counterparts in the plastic arts Margaret Graves develops a series of new frameworks for exploring the intelligent art of the allusive object These address materiality representation and perception and examine contemporary literary and poetic paradigms of metaphor description and indirect reference as tools for approaching the plastic arts Arguing for the role of the intellect in the applied arts and for the communicative potential of ornament Arts of Allusion asserts the reinstatement of craftsmanship into Islamic intellectual history Japanese Art - Transcultural Perspectives Melanie Trede,Christine Guth,Mio Wakita,2024-12-02 The transcultural approach to Japanese art history embraced by the contributors to this volume centers on the dynamic aesthetic artistic and conceptual negotiations across cultural temporal and spatial boundaries It not only acknowledges material objects people and technologies as agents but also intangible practices such as knowledge and concepts as vital agencies of interaction in transcultural processes With its premise on connectivity trans territoriality networks and their transformative potential this research destabilizes categorical configurations such as center vs periphery and high vs low calling into question the classical canon of Japanese art history

Rural Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2012-05-29 Older research on the premodern world limited its focus on the Church the court and more recently on urban space The present volume invites readers to consider the meaning of rural space both in light of ecocritical readings and social historical approaches While previous scholars examined the figure of the peasant in the premodern world the current volume combines a large number of specialized studies that investigate how the natural environment and the appearance of members of the rural population interacted with the world of the court and of the city The experience in rural space was important already for writers and artists in the premodern era as the large variety of scholarly approaches indicates The present volume signals how much the surprisingly close interaction between members of the aristocratic and of the peasant class determined many literary and art historical works In a surprisingly large number of cases we can even discover elements of utopia hidden in rural space We also observe how much the rural world was a significant element already in early medieval mentality Moreover as many authors point out the impact of natural forces on premodern society was tremendous if not catastrophic

Imagining India in Modern China Gal Gvili,2022-10-11 Winner 2023 Harry Levin Prize American Comparative Literature Association Beginning in the late Qing era Chinese writers and intellectuals looked to India in search of new literary possibilities and anticolonial solidarity In their view India and China shared both an illustrious past of cultural and religious exchange and a present experience of colonial aggression These writers imagined India as an alternative to Western imperialism a Pan Asian ideal that could help chart an escape route from colonialism and its brutal grasp on body and mind by ushering in a new kind of modernity in Asian terms Gal Gvili examines how Chinese writers image of India shaped the making of a new literature and spurred efforts to achieve literary decolonization She argues that multifaceted visions of Sino Indian connections empowered Chinese literary figures to resist Western imperialism and its legacies through novel forms and genres However Gvili demonstrates the Global North and its authority mediated Chinese visions of Sino Indian pasts and futures Often reading Indian literature and thought through English translations Chinese writers struggled to break free from deeply ingrained imperialist knowledge structures Imagining India in Modern China traces one of the earliest South South literary imaginaries the hopes it inspired the literary rejuvenation it launched and the shadow of the North that inescapably haunted it By unearthing Chinese writers endeavors to decolonize literature and thought as well as the indelible marks that imperialism left on their minds it offers new perspective on the possibilities and limitations of anticolonial movements and South South solidarity The Law Times ,1904 Literary remains Theodor Goldstücker,1879 Literary Remains of ...
