Bernard's is a nuanced exploration of the intricacies of human emotion set against the backdrop of Victorian society. The novel intricately weaves together themes of love, loss, and personal redemption with a rich narrative style that combines vivid descriptions with introspective character studies. Berdoo employs a blend of realism and melodrama, reflecting the societal norms and psychological complexities of his time, allowing readers to engage deeply with the protagonist's journey through the challenges of conformity and the desire for authenticity.

Edward Berdoo, a prolific writer and social reformer of the late 19th century, drew upon his background in medicine and his progressive views on social issues to inform his narratives. His works often delve into the moral dilemmas and emotional conflicts faced by individuals, reflecting his belief in the importance of compassion and understanding in a rapidly changing world. Berdoo's personal experiences and his dedication to social justice resonate throughout St Bernard's, anchoring the narrative in a rich context of moral inquiry and human connection.

St Bernard's is highly recommended for readers who appreciate character-driven narratives that challenge societal norms and explore the depths of human resilience. Berdoo's skillful storytelling captures the reader's heart while offering profound insights into the human condition, making it an essential addition to the library of anyone interested in Victorian literature or psychological fiction.

Medieval Images of Saint Bernard of Clairvaux James France, 2007. Accompanying CD-ROM contains image index of all known medieval portrayals of this influential saint. Page 4 of cover. Sermons of Saint Bernard on Advent & Christmas: Including the Famous Treatise on the Incarnation Called "Missus Est" Saint Bernard of Clairvaux, Aeterna Press. It is a pleasure to write a few words of introduction to an admirable translation of some interesting Sermons of St Bernard made by one of the Community of St Mary's York. The sermons are nineteen in number and are all of them related to the mysteries of Advent and Christmas. Of the seven sermons De Adventu Domini printed in Dom Mabillon's edition of the saint's works we have here the first two. Then follow the four homilies on the text Missus est etc. This is the title that is generally given to these famous sermons but the holy preacher himself intended them to be called De laudibus Virginis Matris as we read in his letter to Peter the Deacon. Of the six discourses for the Vigil of Christmas the translator has selected the first, the fourth, and the sixth. All the five sermons on Christmas Day are given. The volume ends with two on the Circumcision and three on the Epiphany. Aeterna Press.
