Benjamin Francis Musser

St Francis The Poet:

St. Francis Poems David Craig, 2013-05-24 After Mary St Francis is clearly the most popular and influential of all the disciples of Jesus Christ He embodies the spiritual poverty humility and childlikeness which are absolutely essential for anyone who wants to grow And it is fitting too to examine his life in poetry since Francis is considered by many to be the father of Italian poetry In these St Francis Poems David Craig gives us what literature should slices of Henry James s lived life as they move past sentimentality to get to the hard edged visceral realities in the original texts though they never lose sight of laughter or of simple joy These poems invite us to celebrate with Lady Poverty around her meager table which is fitting since that is the only place we will ever be fed This project itself revisits the haunts of David Craig s first book The Sandaled Foot 1980 But here St Francis seems to come even more deeply alive next to shelves of cool protected water in the red meadows of praise

Motivos Gabriela Mistral, 2013 In this superb critical edition Horan has collected edited and translated the various prose texts that Gabriela Mistral devoted to St Francis a figure of utmost importance to the deeply religious poet and to the spirituality of Latin American literature and art The inspired translation of Mistral s idiosyncratic Spanish prose into English captures the rhythm and the delicate lyrical quality of the original a feat made even more admirable by the addition of an elucidating and comprehensive critical afterword This is the definitive edition of a work that had yet to be presented in its entirety in such an organized and illuminating way
