

The Stock Horse and the Stable Cat

The Stock Horse and the Stable Cat

A kind but stock horse and a wise stable cat had become unlikely friends in the ranch, and found themselves walking together one autumn morning. In a meadow behind the paddock they saw an apple tree, and watched as an breeze rustled in a branch.

"The wind is good," said the stock horse. "It carries the smell of sagebrush from the valley and blows through my mane, and that makes me feel happy."

"The wind is bad," said the stable cat. "It's bothersome and bothersome and makes it difficult to hear mice in the field, and that makes me feel angry."

But the wind was not good or bad, it was simply the wind, and the horse and cat were free to choose how they felt about it.
