Stand Up And Talk To 1000 People:

Crowning the Nice Girl Christine R. Yano, 2006-06-30 After World War II Japanese Americans in Hawaii sought to carve a positive niche of public citizenship in the community. In 1953 members of the Honolulu Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce and their wives created a beauty contest the Cherry Blossom Festival CBF Queen Pageant which quickly became an annual spectacle for the growing urban population of Honolulu. Crowning the Nice Girl analyzes the pageant through its decades of development to the present within multiple frameworks of gender class and race ethnicity. Drawing on extensive archival research interviews with CBF queens contestants and organizers and participant observation in the Fiftieth Annual Festival as a volunteer Christine Yano paints a complex portrait of not only a beauty pageant but also a community. The study begins with the subject of beauty pageants in general and Asian American beauty pageants in particular interrogating the issues they raise embedding them within their histories and examining them as part of a global culture that has taken its model from the Miss America contest. Yano follows the pageant throughout the decades into the 1990s adding corresponding herstories extensive narratives drawn from interviews with CBF queens. She concludes by framing issues of race ethnicity spectacle and community within the intertwined themes of niceness and banality.

How To Present To Absolutely Anyone Mark Rhodes, 2018-11-26 Master the art of public speaking with a mind and content based approach to success. How to Present to Absolutely Anyone is the ultimate guide to successful public speaking. Presentations talks and speeches are unavoidable in school work and even social occasions have you ever had to deliver a wedding toast but fear of public speaking is statistically more common than fear of death. Author Mark Rhodes once pretended he had crashed his car to avoid doing a presentation. Permanent avoidance will eventually hold you back but mastering the art of the successful presentation can take you to new heights. This book shows you how Mark eventually learned to love public speaking by setting himself up for a self sustaining cycle of presentation success. It takes more than stage presence to make a great presentation you need great content. Without it you won't get the result you're after and you will dread the next talk. But if your presentation stands on its own two feet and you manage to banish the stage fright you get a taste of success that ignites your passion and gets you excited to present every time. Packed with practical advice for both mental anguish and content creation this book approaches public speaking holistically to arm you with real skills for success. Build confidence reduce fear and develop the right mindset for public speaking. Engage your audience from the start and reduce first minute jitters. Develop great content that you look forward to presenting each time. Go beyond simple body language to reach your audience in a more authentic organic way. Don't mumble your way through a PowerPoint or try to put flash over substance. Craft an engaging informative presentation that people want to see and that you want to present. This book covers performance anxiety speaking skills ideas content practice preparation and audience interaction. How to Present to Absolutely Anyone guides you from fear to excitement to success.

Getting Students to Show Up Jonathan McKee,2009-07-13 Whenever I talk with youth workers at big events I see the same look in their eyes It s the look of I want to pull off an event like this I regularly get phone calls from youth workers around the country saying We ve never done anything like this before but we wanted to do a big evangelism event At 80% of the events I speak at each year it seems as if the youth worker in charge expected large numbers only to get a fourth of his or her expectations The heart is there and the motives are pure but the experience and know how are in short supply Most youth workers would love to pull off successful outreach events if they only knew how Youth workers are only learning how to program outreach events by trial and error They need a resource to not only teach them the basics in programming outreach events but also give them tools and examples that actually work This book will help them understand the mindset of this outreach crowd and give them the tools to plan effective outreach programs The book will show them examples of how NOT to do it as well as giving them ready made events that work It will also provide the basics such as the importance of DRAW and aligning every single element with the events PURPOSE The target market is all youth workers who want to plan weekly outreach programs big events or campus programs A secondary audience would be student leaders who want to learn how to run 20 minute lunchtime Bible Clubs geared for outreach Youth workers would be the gatekeepers to this audience because they are the ones who would purchase the books for their student leaders
