Contemporary Black Thinkers in the Diaspora and Their Conceptualizations of Africa Abdul Karim Bangura, 2024-08-24 This book contends that Afrocentricity and other ideas birthed by major contemporary Black thinkers in the Diaspora are wellsprings for helping to build a new Africa This book examines these ideas which have given rise to the Africanist Perspective on the Motherland to place Africa at the center of all intellectual discourses pertaining to African people everywhere while at the same time challenging the pervasive and pernicious Eurocentric myth of African people being inactive agents in history These contributions from a global range of scholars across disciplines examine the work of contemporary great Black thinkers as sources that can be employed to help in the construction of a new Africa Each chapter examines how these thinkers conceptualized Africa in their works with the main objective of delineating their conceptualizations to generate suggestions on how to rebuild the continent Cambridge Dictionary of American Idioms Paul Heacock, 2003-09-22 This book unlocks the meaning of more than 5 000 idioms used in American English today Cry Freedom Delrose Bramwell & Milton Woolley, 2011-07-28 If you only enjoy roses are red violets are blue and sugar sweet poetry this is no book for you Cry Freedom is a down to earth volume that quivers with the harshness of reality and the cynicism and social injustices of modern life Uppermost among those elements suffering from social economic and legal wrongs is the plight of the black man and other minorities That is the subject which is of concern to the authors They are mortified by their lack of human rights the chains that have bound them and have caused psychological aberrations by the prejudice that has stultified their opportunities in a white man s society Their concern can be seen in many of the poem titles such as Of What Was I Robbed Vision of Freedom Skin Deep Don t Bring Back Slavery My Coat and Let My People Go Africa is Dying and I sms There is a timeliness a pressing urgency to these stark creations Each one of these poems is a step in the direction of understanding maturity and liberation They are carefully wrought and will stand as a beacon of truth and hope for all minorities and underprivileged as well as for all thinking Americans who believe in fair play justice and the fight to liberty and the pursuit of happiness Coolie Mulk Raj Anand, 1994 Coolie portrays the picaresque adventures of Munoo a young boy forced to leave his hill village to fend for himself and discover the world His journey takes him far from home to towns and cities to Bombay and Simla sweating as servant factory worker and rickshaw driver It is a fight for survival that illuminates with raw immediacy the grim fate of the masses in pre Partition India A Man of High Character Mitchell White, 2019-11-25 The call of a Christian is to aim for righteousness yet so few of us ask What is right What is the ideal that we ought to aim for Ecclesiastes states there is a time for all things A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing a time to love and a time to hate a time for war and a time for peace Yet it is a rare man who will dare to ask When should I love and when should I hate When should I forgive and when should I go to war Most prefer the simplicity of always choosing one but the Christian is committed to pursuing righteousness This book is a fierce dive into the depths of righteousness It is not for those who prefer simplicity and easy living but for those who are willing to bear the responsibility of righteousness Re-Reading Tragic Africa Amy Rushton, 2024-05-31 Grounded in world systemic analysis this book revisits the literary and social implications of tragedy in relation to global narratives about Africa and within fiction by writers from the continent It argues that working through the full complexity of tragedy helps to identify and challenge plots that depict Africa as reaching a tragic impasse Instead reconsidering tragedy allows for further related interventions including the implications of narratives of development the argument for formally engaging with literary texts that present challenging material reformulations of African political and cultural agency and the possibilities to be found in utopian thinking It claims that contemporary fiction helps to scrutinise the familiar big picture of Africa and create space for discussions about wider political and historical commonalities between the continent and the rest of the world As such the novels discussed in this study are not simply about Africa these fictional narratives position Africa as a central actor within the global history of late capitalism

Reflections in the Ripples Charles Barnett, 2014-06-19 A lake untroubled by the wind can be as reflective as a mirror However with the slightest breeze the surface is agitated and the reflection is no longer clearly represented The reflection is distorted and the small details that make up the complete picture can no longer be discerned Our lives are similar to lakes in this instance We look upon our lives trying to see ourselves as we are but the surface is constantly moving and disturbed by the moments that define us This is why we must look beneath the surface where no matter what commotions are occurring above the image remains unaffected and motionless and things appear as they truly exist Then we can properly envision our current state and make appropriate decisions to bring about necessary changes We've been given a mirror faultless and pristine in which to gaze and evaluate ourselves from the image reflected This mirror is God's Word In it is truth and enlightenment for everyone who cares to search for the answers to all questions Find your No Wake Zone where you can clearly evaluate your current situation and standing so you'll be able to make quality choices to help bring about desired results

The Prepare Curriculum Arnold P. Goldstein, 1999 This book has a series of coordinated psychoeducational courses explicitly designed to teach an array of prosocial psychological competencies to adolescents and younger children who are deficient in such competencies
