Standard Speech Essays On Voice And Speech:

Training Actors' Voices Tara McAllister-Viel, 2018-08-06 Contemporary actor training in the US and UK has become increasingly multicultural and multilinguistic. Border crossing cross cultural exchange in contemporary theatre practices and the rise of the intercultural actor has meant that actor training today has been shaped by multiple modes of training and differing worldviews. How might mainstream Anglo American voice training for actors address the needs of students who bring multiple worldviews into the training studio? When several vocal training traditions are learned simultaneously how does this shift the way actors think, talk and perform? How does this change the way actors understand what a voice is? What it can, should do? How it can, should do it? Using adaptations of a traditional Korean vocal art, pansori, with adaptations of the natural or free voice approach, Tara McAllister-Viel offers an alternative approach to training actors' voices by re-considering the materials of training: breath, sound, presence and text. This work contributes to ongoing discussions about the future of voice pedagogy in theatre for those practitioners and scholars interested in performance studies, ethnomusicology, voice studies and intercultural theories and practices. Film, Broadcast & E-media Coaching Rocco Dal Vera, 2003 Applause Books. This book features 67 articles from experts all over the world on the theme of coaching actors for performances in film, broadcast and e-media. Covers a wide variety of topics from Breathing Principles, Pedagogy to Dialect/Accent Studies to Private Studio Practice. Language and Television Series Monika Bednarek, 2018-10-04 This book offers a comprehensive linguistic analysis of contemporary US television series. Adopting an interdisciplinary and multimethodological approach, Monika Bednarek brings together linguistic analysis of the Sydney Corpus of Television Dialogue with analysis of scriptwriting manuals, interviews with Hollywood scriptwriters and a survey undertaken with university students about their consumption of TV series. In so doing, she presents five new and original empirical studies. The focus on language use in a professional context, the television industry, on scriptwriting pedagogy and on learning and teaching provides an applied linguistic lens on TV series. This is complemented by perspectives taken from media linguistics, corpus linguistics and sociocultural linguistics, sociolinguistics. Throughout the book, multiple dialogue extracts are presented from a wide variety of well-known fictional television series including The Big Bang Theory, Grey's Anatomy and Bones. Researchers in applied linguistics, discourse analysis, critical discourse analysis, corpus linguistics, sociolinguistics and media linguistics will find the book both stimulating and unique in its approach. Horrors of a Voice (object a) Tristram Adams, 2024-07-11 This book reframes the Lacanian object a voice as a horrific register of alterity. The object gaze has received as it does in Jacques Lacan's work more commentary than voice. Yet recently voice has garnered interest from multiple disciplines. The book intervenes in the Slovenian school's commentary of the object voice in terms of two questions: audition and corporeality. This intervention synthesizes psychoanalysis with recent theorizing of the horror of philosophy. In this intervention, the object a voice is argued to resonate in lacunae, epistemological voids that evoke horror in the subject.

Biological and evolutionary perspectives on voice genre horror film and literature music videos close readings of Freudian and Lacanian case studies and textual analysis of ancient philosophy texts all contribute to an elucidation of the horrors of the object a voice Vox Exo Latinx Actor Training Cynthia Santos DeCure,Micha Espinosa,2023-03-03 Latinx Actor Training presents essays and pioneering research from leading Latinx practitioners and scholars in the United States to examine the history and future of Latino a x e actor training practices and approaches Born out of the urgent need to address the inequities in academia and the industry as Latinx representation on stage and screen remains disproportionately low despite population growth this book seeks to reimagine and restructure the practice of actor training by inviting deep investigation into heritage and identity practices Latinx Actor Training features contributions covering current and historical acting methodologies principles and training explorations of linguistic identity casting considerations and culturally inclusive practices that aim to empower a new generation of Latinx actors and to assist the educators who are entrusted with their training This book is dedicated to creating career success and championing positive narratives to combat pervasive and damaging stereotypes Latinx Actor Training offers culturally inclusive pedagogies that will be invaluable for students practitioners and scholars interested in the intersections of Latinx herencia heritage identity and actor training Voice: Onstage and Off Robert Barton,Rocco dal Vera,2011-05-03 Voice Onstage and Off is a comprehensive guide to the process of building mastering and fine tuning the voice for performance Every aspect of vocal work is covered from the initial speech impulse and the creation of sound right through to refining the final product in different types of performance This highly adaptable course of study empowers performers of all levels to combine and evolve their onstage and offstage voices This second edition is extensively illustrated and accompanied by an all new website full of audio and text resources including extensive teacher guides including sample syllabi scheduling options and ways of adapting to varying academic environments and teaching circumstances downloadable forms to help reproduce the book s exercises in the classroom and for students to engage with their own vocal development outside of lessons audio recordings of all exercises featured in the book examples of Voiceover Demos including both scripts and audio recordings links to useful web resources for further study Four mentors the voice chef the voice coach the voice shrink and the voice doctor are on hand throughout the book and the website to ensure a holistic approach to voice training The authors also provide an authoritative survey of US and UK vocal training methods helping readers to make informed choices about their study Register of the University of California University of California (1868-1952),1937 The Vocal Vision Marian E.
