The Happy Ending:

The Happy Ending David Stokes, 2017-09-12 A 97 year old hero becomes involved in a very 21st century problem A novel for those who enjoyed The 100 Year Old Man Who Climbed out of the Window and Disappeared and The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry This is a feel good heart warming novel full of fun and whimsy that also touches on a serious theme When his wife of seventy years dies Harry Pigeon considers joining her in the grave as he feels his purpose for living has gone A freak accident outside his bungalow draws him into the sordid world of modern slavery and a quest that reinvigorates his zest for life Single handedly rescuing two girls from an international trafficking operation he finds the tables are turned when he is accused of kidnapping them When the girls also admit to using him to gain money Harry's old fashioned values suddenly seem inadequate Can someone of his age still make a contribution in the modern world Also running through the story is a sub plot involving Harry's deceased wife Betty who retains a strong voice in his life through their amusing daily conversations that show his continued dependency on her for advice and guidance Clearly they've had their difficulties in the past in particular over the daughter he never met who died before he returned home from the war Can Harry hope to resolve his feelings with Betty from beyond the grave

Nancy Meyers Deborah Jermyn, 2017-07-27 Nancy Meyers is acknowledged as the most commercially successful woman filmmaker of all time described by Daphne Merkin in The New York Times on the release of It's Complicated as a singular figure in Hollywood she may in fact be the most powerful female writer director producer currently working Yet Meyers remains a director who alongside being widely dismissed by critics has been largely absent in scholarly accounts both of contemporary Hollywood cinema and of feminism and film Despite Meyers impressive track record for turning a profit including the biggest box office return ever achieved by a woman filmmaker at that time for What Women Want in 2000 and a multifaceted career as a writer producer director dating back to her co writing Private Benjamin in 1980 Meyers has been oddly neglected by Film Studies to date Including Nancy Meyers in the Bloomsbury Companions to Contemporary Filmmakers rectifies this omission giving her the kind of detailed consideration and recognition she warrants and exploring how notwithstanding the challenges authorship holds for feminist film studies Meyers can be situated as a skilled auteur This book proposes that Meyers box office success the consistency of style and theme across her films and the breadth of her body of work as a writer producer director across more than three decades at the forefront of Hollywood thus importantly bridging the second third waves of feminism make her a key contemporary US filmmaker Structured to meet the needs of both the student and scholar Jermyn's volume situates Meyers within this historical and critical context exploring the distinctive qualities of her body of work the reasons behind the pervasive resistance to it and new ways of understanding her films

The Five Lives of Our Cat Zook Joanne Rocklin, 2012-04-01 In this warmhearted middle grade novel Oona and her brother Fred love their cat Zook short for Zucchini but Zook is sick As they conspire to break him out of the vet's office convinced he can only get better at home with them Oona tells Fred the story of Zook's previous lives ranging in style from fairy tale to grand epic to slice of life Each of Zook's lives has echoes in Oona's own family life which is going through a transition she's not yet ready to face Her father died two years ago and her mother has started a relationship with a man named Dylan whom Oona secretly calls the villain The truth about Dylan and about Zook's medical condition drives the drama in this loving family story Praise for The Five Lives of Our Cat Zook STARRED REVIEW Rocklin's characters are fully developed readers will be invested Set in Oakland readers are also treated to a refreshingly authentic child's view of a diverse city The only imperfection in this novel is that it ends Booklist starred review Oona's character is a combination of Harriet the Spy in curiosity and Anastasia in spunk Another emotionally satisfying outing from Rocklin hanky recommended Kirkus Reviews Just as she did in One Day and One Amazing Morning on Orange Street Rocklin intertwines her characters so smartly that the many coincidences and serendipitous events feel organic to the story The story's ending bittersweet inevitable and true offers much needed catharsis for the family and for anyone who has ever loved a pet The Horn Book This heartwarming family tale is filled with resilient and thoughtful characters who are willing to learn from their mistakes Readers who enjoy the novels of Jeanne Birdsall and Leslie Crunch will appreciate this charming story School Library Journal There is a strong sense of place in this loving story with the ending sure to generate some tears This would make a strong library lesson extension activity Library Media Connection Awards SCBWI's Golden Kite Award for Fiction 2012 Dorothy Canfield Fisher Book Award Rebecca Caudill Young Readers Book Award

Landscapes of Decadence Alex Murray, 2016-12 This book explores the relationship between literary politics and the politics of place in fin de siècle travel and place based literature

Women and Comedy Susan Carlson, 2025-10-01 The first comprehensive study of its kind this book explores the contradictory connections between women and dramatic comedy Women and Comedy shows how a genre that has been used historically to restrict women's behavior is being reconfigured to express women's triumphs It thus redefines the assumptions with which both traditional comedy and contemporary women's plays are read and viewed Challenging a critical consensus that has seen comedy as a haven for female power Carlson argues that traditional comedy is deeply sexist welcoming strong women characters only because it can contain their power Through an analysis of a range of comedies by Shakespeare Congreve Maugham Shaw and Ayckbourn the author shows that even in these plays self consciously about liberated females women gain only a limited freedom a freedom that the endings of the plays work to negate This negotiation is seen to result in part from the comic structure itself which privileges a merely temporary inversion and an ultimate return to the status quo Carlson then examines the transitional work of three writers Aphra Behn Henry James and Ann Jellicoe whose heroines follow an unorthodox trajectory through their comic worlds While the work of these writers clearly remains within the mainstream comic tradition the author notes in them a subtle departure most notably in their description of the heroine as subject rather than object which prefigures the full scale transformations of women in comedy by contemporary women writers The book then examines contemporary comedy that revises traditional comic structure at the same time as it explores fundamental social change In making her case for the difference of contemporary comedy by women Carlson examines the reformulations of structure and character and considers issues of community self and sexuality in a broad range of plays by individual playwrights and by the new women s theater collectives Women and Comedy is an important work for students of British drama and will appeal to theater practitioners critics feminist scholars and all those interested in the performing arts

The Methuen Drama Handbook of Gender and Theatre Sean Metzger,Roberta Mock,2023-12-28 Shortlisted for the 2024 TaPRA Edited Collection Prize This is a guide to contemporary debates and theatre practices at a time when gender paradigms are both in flux and at the centre of explosive political battlegrounds The confluence of gender and theatre has long created intense debate about representation identification social conditioning desire embodiment and lived experience As this handbook demonstrates from the conventions of early modern English Chinese Japanese and Hispanic theatres to the subversion of racialized binaries of masculinity and femininity in recent North American African Asian Caribbean and European productions the matter of gender has consistently taken centre stage This handbook examines how critical discourses on gender intersect with key debates in the field of theatre studies as a lens to illuminate the practices of gender and theatre as well as the societies they inform and represent across space and time Of interest to scholars in the interrelated areas of feminist gender and sexuality studies theatre and performance studies cultural studies and globalization and diasporic studies this book demonstrates how researchers are currently addressing theatre about gender issues and gendered theatre practices While synthesizing and summarizing foundational and evolving debates from a contemporary perspective this collection offers interpretations and analyses that do not simply look back at existing scholarship but open up new possibilities and understandings Featuring essential research tools including a survey of keywords and an annotated play list this is an indispensable scholarly handbook for anyone working in theatre and performance

Short Story-Writing: An Art or a Trade? N. Bryllion Fagin,2022-01-17 In Short Story Writing An Art or a Trade N Bryllion Fagin presents a nuanced exploration of the short story form deftly dissecting its dual nature as both an artistic endeavor and a commercial craft Fagin employs a conversational yet analytical prose style weaving in practical advice literary theory and anecdotal insights that illuminate the creative process He contextualizes short story writing within the broader landscape of American literature addressing its evolution and the myriad influences that have shaped it from Romanticism to Modernism making this text invaluable for both budding writers and seasoned authors N Bryllion Fagin was a prominent figure in early 20th century American literature notable for his contributions to literary education and the study of narrative forms His own background as a writer and educator informed his desire to demystify the story writing process This reflective work draws from Fagin s extensive experience in workshops and classrooms as well as his keen observations of the literary market and its demands offering readers a holistic understanding of the craft Perfect for aspiring writers and literary enthusiasts Fagin s book provides readers with the tools needed to navigate the complexities of short story creation By challenging preconceived notions of artistic purity Fagin encourages writers to embrace the interplay of artistry and market demands making this book a thought provoking guide that is as relevant today as it was at its publication

Who Listens? Janet Bourne,2025 Chapter 1 describes how the cognitive process of analogy can be used as a framework for analyzing how individual listeners relate what they are hearing to what they may have heard or learned in musical and other experiences in the past The framework emphasizes the cognitive steps a person takes when making an analogy of any kind 1 retrieval remembering patterns and associations based on experience 2 mapping aligning situations and 3 inference transfer transferring inferences associations recognizing manipulations I use this process to analyze hearings of Western art music illustrating not only how listeners might analogize music to other domains such as the body or language as a framing analogy for their listening experience but also how they might analogize details of the music they are currently hearing to music they have heard in the past creating what I call music to music analogies

The Bookman ,1910 The Orthodox churchman's magazine; or, A Treasury of divine and useful knowledge ,1805 The Cloud-Capped Star (Meghe Dhaka Tara) Manishita Dass,2020-10-01 Ritwik Ghatak s The Cloud Capped Star Meghe Dhaka Tara 1960 has been hailed as one of the great classics of world cinema Adrian Martin and one of the five or six greatest melodramas in cinema history Serge Daney A striking blend of modernist aesthetics and melodramatic force it is arguably the best known film by Ghatak widely considered to be one of the most original politically committed and formally innovative film makers from India The film s focus on a family uprooted by the Partition of India and its powerful exploration of displacement and historical trauma gives it a renewed relevance in the midst of a global refugee crisis Manishita Dass situates the film in its historical and cultural contexts and within Ghatak s film making career and connects it to his theatrical work and his writings on film and theatre Her close reading of the film locates its emotional and intellectual power in what she describes as its cinematic theatricality and brings into focus Ghatak s modernist experiments with melodramatic devices his deliberate departures from cinematic realism and distinctive use of sound and music The book draws on extensive archival research excavates new layers of meaning and offers fresh insights into the cosmopolitan cinematic sensibility of a director described as one of the most neglected major film makers in the world

Jonathan Rosenbaum Conversations with Eugene O'Neill Eugene O'Neill,1990 This collection of thirty years of interviews with America's only Nobel Prize dramatist records his encounters with the press and gives a striking portrait of the man and the process of his public mythologizing. A profoundly private individual O'Neill struggled throughout his life to overcome his intense discomfort with oral discourse as he responded to the probing of interviewers wishing him to discuss a wide range of social, political, literary and theatrical issues. Collected in their entirety for the first time, these interviews begin in 1920 when O'Neill was thirty-two. Serious American drama for many began and for many others ended with Eugene O'Neill. This collection lends new testimony to the truth of that assertion.

The Marriage of Maria Braun Rainer Werner Fassbinder, 1986. Commentary and criticism on Fassbinder's film The Marriage of Maria Braun.

Comedy and Cultural Critique in American Film Ryan Bishop, 2014-11-28. This book uses large-scale social and cultural trends and major world events to analyse the American comedy film.

Untamed and Unabashed Regina Barreca, 1994. In Untamed and Unabashed, Regina Barreca noted authority on women and humor examines the use of humor in the works of Jane Austen, Charlotte Brontë, George Eliot, Elizabeth Bowen, Muriel Spark, and Fay Weldon. She analyzes the ways that each writer uses comedic devices, especially those involving language itself, and discusses the gendered basis of their humor, providing a provocative feminist perspective on gender and comedy. Each of the essays argues that conservative critics have misread and misunderstood the importance of humor in the works of these women authors and that women's humor serves to explode conventions oppressive to women and to offer women readers a critique of and an alternative perspective on the dominant cultural ideologies that contain and oppress them. The book concludes that these authors strategically deployed humor coded in forms that women readers but not men readers would recognize and understand as a means of educating and empowering those women readers. Barreca asserts that much of women's comic play has to do with power and its systematic misappropriation, allowing women to gain perspective by ridiculing the implicit insanities of a patriarchal culture. Using detailed persuasive new readings of various works of each of her chosen authors, she shows how the straightjacket of conventional femininity is challenged, confronted, and finally thrown off. This volume demonstrates that comedy can effectively channel anger and rebellion by first making them appear to be acceptable and temporary phenomena and then by harnessing the released energies rather than dispersing them. This kind of comedy, which is at the heart of Untamed and Unabashed, terrifies those who hold order dear. It should.

English Studies Mehmet Ali Çelikel, Baysar Taniyan, 2015-09-18. This volume offers a selection of revised versions of the papers presented at the 7th International IDEA Conference held at Pamukkale University in Denizli, Turkey, organised by the Association of English Language and Literary Studies in Turkey. The contributions to this book offer a wide range of research from scholars on a variety of topics in English literature, including Shakespearean studies, Victorian colonial and postcolonial literature, poetry and drama studies. The volume also includes a number of informative research articles on comparative and translation studies, which will offer assistance to young scholars in their academic studies. In addition to acting as a guide to young academics, the book will also function as a fruitful reference book in a wide range of English literary studies     Laughter, Power, and the Unconscious Maria Grazia Turri, Bridget Escolme, 2025-10-31 Laughter Power and the Unconscious offers paradigm breaking insights into the psychological and sociopolitical dimensions of humour and comedy Based on an innovative audience experiment at Shakespeare's Globe the authors develop a revolutionary theory of humour as manic defence challenging Freud's classic formulations while engaging with contemporary humour theories The text explores three key domains firstly it establishes and evaluates the theory in comparison to Freud's work in Jokes and their Relation to the Unconscious while positioning it within major humour frameworks secondly it demonstrates the theory's application to Renaissance comedy examining characters like Malvolio from Twelfth Night alongside stock figures of cuckolds and madmen in both English theatrical traditions and commedia dell'arte finally it investigates the theory's broader sociopolitical relevance by analysing war related humour and racist jokes while addressing comedy's dual capacity to both challenge and reinforce existing power structures This volume will appeal to the scholars and students of theatre and performance studies psychology literary theory and cultural studies interested in the sociopolitical implications of humour
