Dark times threaten humanity when an ancient magical artifact is unknowingly found by a malevolent sorcerer who is hell-bent on razing both the realms of the Guardians and that of the Humans. He plans to summon forth the first messenger of the Apocalypse, the White Horseman. In this world of sorcerers, both good and bad, there lay a prophecy of one human child who could save both of their worlds from destruction. In a chain of events that will pull him through the veil that shields the dimensions from each other, he will lead a motley band of warriors to the one being that can help them understand the puppet masters that are raging their unseen war. With the Immortals looking down, they guide him towards his goal to destroy the mad sorcerer before the White Horseman can be summoned.
