Stanley Marcus Thomas E. Lone Stars of David Hollace Ava Weiner, Kenneth Roseman, 2007 An essay collection of lively written lavishly illustrated and well documented narratives on the history and culture of Texas Jews

Hope over Fear Norma Tevis Matthews, Bill Matthews, 2017-10-06 For those of us who lived through the Cold War years in Dallas this book is a sometimes painful journey through a past we would most like to forget For younger people it fills in gaps in our local history that had national and international dimensions At the same time it is a reminder of the integrity tenacity and courage of the few brave souls who kept faith in the sure knowledge that right will win out and whose leadership has led us to a new day in our citywatts and all This is the story of the Dallas Chapter United Nations Association long overdue Norma and Bill Matthews both of whom are past presidents of DUNA have done a masterful job of probing the past ferreting out nuggets of history tucked into boxes and stashed away in family attics backroom nooks and office storerooms For much of the time since its founding in 1953 DUNA has had no permanent home or office and its records have been at the mercy of whoever was its leader always with the possibility that succeeding generations of its founders would not recognize the merits of those sealed boxes and would destroy them Using endless newspaper files mostly from the Dallas Morning News and some from the late Dallas Times Herald and Fort Worth Star Telegram the Matthews writing team has been able to follow the founding development and leadership of DUNA vastly enriched by personal stories of individuals who kept the flame alive in good times and bad Norma and Bill Matthews teamed their professional degrees in education communication music and theology to serve as volunteer activists for human rights and peace endeavors Married 63 years and retiring as teacher and minister they committed themselves to research and preserve the history of advocacy for support of sustainable goals of individual and universal dignity and freedom

Alice Marriott Remembered Alice Marriott, 2014-07-25 In her large body of work that spanned more than half a century Alice Marriott gave a wide audience fresh and lively accounts of the complex cultures of the Southwestern American Indian Trained as an anthropologist ethnologist the first woman to graduate with a degree in that field from the University of Oklahoma she coupled her scientific and creative writing skills to produce books that have become classics Maria The Potter of San Ildefonso a definitive study of Pueblo Indian pottery making has remained in print for sixty years The memoirs that comprise this volume were written by Alice Marriott four years before her death in 1992 at the age of 82 They were her response to a request from Still Point Press for a full autobiography Her frail health at the time she was ill with Bell's Palsy blind in one eye recovering from multiple fractures from falls prevented her from writing more Nevertheless the pieces she did complete are delightful personal stories told in that unique Marriott style still engaging and humorous today
