The Resemblance Lauren Nossett,2022-11-08 Lauren

Nossett's artfully written debut The Resemblance is an exhilarating atmospheric campus thriller reminiscent of If We Were Villains and The Likeness. Never betray the brotherhood. On a chilly November morning at the University of Georgia, a fraternity brother steps off a busy crosswalk and is struck dead by an oncoming car. More than a dozen witnesses all agree on two things: the driver looked identical to the victim, and he was smiling. Detective Marlitt Kaplan is first on the scene. An Athens native and the daughter of a UGA professor, she knows all its shameful histories, from the skull discovered under the foundations of Baldwin Hall to the hushed-up murder-suicide in Waddell. But in the course of investigating this hit-and-run, she will uncover more chilling secrets as she explores the sprawling interconnected Greek system that entertains and delights the university's most elite and connected students. The lines between Marlitt's police work and her own past increasingly blur as Marlitt seeks to bring to justice an institution that took something precious from her many years ago. When threats against her escalate and some long-buried secrets threaten to come to the surface, she can't help questioning whether the corruption in Athens has run off-campus and into the force, and how far these brotherhoods will go to protect their own.

Transatlantic Sensations John Cyril Barton, Kristin N. Huston, a Preface by David S. Reynolds, 2016-02-24. Bringing together sensation writing and transatlantic studies, this collection makes a convincing case for the symbiotic relationship between literary works on both sides of the Atlantic. Transatlantic Sensations begins with the prehistories of the genre, looking at the dialogue and debate generated by the publication of sentimental and gothic fiction by William Godwin, Susanna Rowson, and Charles Brockden Brown. Thus establishing a context for the treatment of works by Louisa May Alcott, Mary Elizabeth Braddon, Dion Boucicault, Wilkie Collins, Charles Dickens, George Lippard, Charles Reade, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and George Thompson, the volume takes up a wide range of sensational topics, including sexuality, slavery, criminal punishment, literary piracy, mesmerism, and the metaphors of foreign literary invasion and diseased reading. Concluding essays offer a reassessment of the realist and domestic fiction of George Eliot, Charlotte Yonge, and Thomas Hardy in the context of transatlantic sensationalism, emphasizing the evolution of the genre throughout the century and mapping a new transatlantic lineage for this immensely popular literary form. The book's final essay examines an international kidnapping case that was a journalistic sensation at the turn of the twentieth century.

Epiphany Steve Lee, 2015-01-23. Civilizations rise and they fall, often by their own hand. Ours is no different. And this is how it happened. Synopsis: Just outside a small town in America's heartland, a young Iowan farm boy, Josh Peterson, finds his life turned upside down by an odd series of reoccurring dreams. Suddenly caught in a violent assault, Josh watches as two mysterious figures from these dreams abruptly appear to intervene in his behalf. In one inexplicable moment, these men somehow suspend reality and in the process rescue him from certain death. In the years that follow, Josh struggles to understand what happened that day and the meaning of the dreams that somehow come to shape his life. In time, he finds these images connect him to a people who once lived centuries earlier and who were themselves rescued by these same men. While he wrestles with this, a cascading chain of global events begins to unfold around him paralleling the tragedies he s witnessed in his dreams Created by the arrogance of man this crisis quickly begins to unravel the fabric of civilization tracing out the now familiar pattern of Rise and Fall even as an unseen force lingers at the edge of perception drawing Josh through an event anticipated eons in advance This as civilization itself teeters on the lip of an abyss Steve Lee Victorian Sensations Kimberly Harrison,Richard Fantina,2006 Wildly popular with Victorian readers sensation fiction was condemned by most critics for scandalous content and formal features that deviated from respectable Victorian realism Victorian Sensations is the first collection to examine sensation fiction as a whole showing it to push genre boundaries and resist easy classification Comprehensive in scope this collection includes twenty original essays employing various critical approaches to cover a range of topics that will interest many readers Essays are organized thematically into three sections issues of genre sensational representations of gender and sexuality and the texts complex readings of diverse social and cultural phenomena such as class race and empire The introduction reviews the critical reception of sensation fiction to situate these new essays within a larger scholarly context BOOK JACKET Cinema and Sensation Martine Beugnet,2007 A study of one of the most intriguing aspects of contemporary French cinema the cinema of transgression This book demonstrates how the films explored as forms of embodied thought offer alternative ways of approaching those questions that are at the heart of the most burning socio cultural debates
