Starring Rosa:

Kissing Shadows Renée, 2005-11-01 Do we ever really know or understand the motives of the ones we love When Vivvie Caird is faced by the sight of her beautiful strong willed mother lying limp and speechless in a hospital bed she feels empowered to begin unlocking the mystery that is her father's legacy Vivvie's naive undertaking soon finds a parallel in her mother's own account of what happened when her husband left home one day never to return A family and a court must confront a devastating event that occurred in the midst of the hard times of last century This fast paced page turning novel takes the reader into an absorbing and moving world of shadowy relationships and intrigue The Mexican Filmography,

1916 through 2001 David E. Wilt, 2024-10-17 Mexican cinema has largely been overlooked by international film scholars because of a lack of English language information and the fact that Spanish language information was difficult to find and often out of date This comprehensive filmography helps fill the need Arranged by year of release and then by title the filmography contains entries that include basic information film and translated title production company genre director cast a plot summary and additional information about the film Inclusion criteria a film must be a Mexican production or co production feature length one hour or more silent films excepted fictional documentaries and compilation films are not included unless the topic relates to Mexican cinema some docudramas and films with recreated or staged scenes are included and theatrically released or intended for theatrical release Shall We Play That One Together? Paul de Barros, 2012-10-16 Born in the UK as Margaret Marian Turner she was trained in classical piano yet was passionately attracted to jazz During World War II she met jazz trumpeter Jimmy McPartland protege of Biederbecke married him and together they made jazz history Cecil B. DeMille's Hollywood Robert S. Birchard, 2004-06-29 A look at the wide ranging work of the Golden Age genius who made The Ten Commandments and other blockbusters and helped found the American film industry Cecil B DeMille's Hollywood is a detailed and definitive chronicle of the director's screen work that changed the course of film history and a fascinating look at how movies were actually made in Hollywood's Golden Age Drawing extensively on DeMille's personal archives and other primary sources Robert S Birchard offers a revealing portrait of DeMille the filmmaker that goes behind studio gates and beyond DeMille's legendary persona In his forty five year career DeMille's box office record was unsurpassed and his swaggering style established the public image for movie directors He had a profound impact on the way movies tell stories and brought greater attention to the elements of decor lighting and cinematography Best remembered today for screen spectacles such as The Ten Commandments and Samson and Delilah DeMille also created Westerns realistic chamber dramas and a series of daring and highly influential social comedies while setting the standard for Hollywood filmmakers and demanding absolute devotion to his creative vision from his writers artists actors and technicians Far and away the best film book published so far this year National Board of Review A Romance to Die for Timothy Donaldson, 2003 The small town of Farmington New Mexico is transformed when two innocent lovers collide on a path of romantic passion Rosa a grieving young lady questioned whether she would ever love again having been hurt so much in the past Jacques with his relentless good natured charm seemed to provide the answer while literally running into her arms The curious couple lived cautiously day by day struggling against outsiders who had become insanely jealous of this new found happiness Will this adolescent love be enough to defend against the cunning desperate people who seek only to destroy what they can not have

Astrid Sees All Natalie Standiford, 2022-02-15 New York 1984 Twenty two year old Phoebe Hayes is a young woman in search of excitement and adventure But the recent death of her father has so devastated her that her mother wants her to remain home in Baltimore to recover Phoebe wants to return to New York not only to chase the glamorous life she so desperately craves but also to confront Ivan the older man who painfully wronged her With her best friend Carmen she escapes to the East Village disappearing into an underworld haunted by artists It Girls and lost souls trying to party their pain away Carmen juggles her junkie poet boyfriend and a sexy painter while as Astrid the Star Girl Phoebe tells fortunes in a nightclub and plots her revenge on Ivan When the intoxicating brew of sex drugs and self destruction leads Phoebe to betray her friend Carmen disappears and Phoebe begins an unstoppable descent into darkness She may have a chance to save herself and Carmen if she can find her but to do it she must face what s hiding in the shadows she s been running from within her heart and in the dangerous midnight streets

Cinema of the Philippines Bryan L. Yeatter, 2007-01-01 Although Filipino cinema dates to the early silent era and shares many characteristics with Western film it has frequently been ignored by Western critics and audiences This book offers a rare study of cinema in the Philippines The first half of the work presents a history Chapters cover lost pre World War II films the postwar cinema boom the Philippines unique relationship with the United States and its manifestation on film and Filipino cinema s decline The second half of the book is the most comprehensive published filmography of Filipino cinema to date

Parenting in Public Donna Haig Friedman, 2000-09-08 When parents must rely on public assistance and family shelters to provide for their children s most basic needs they lose autonomy Within a system of public assistance that already stigmatizes and isolates its beneficiaries their family lives become subject to public scrutiny and criticism They are parenting in public This book is an in depth examination of the realities of life for parents and their children in family shelters The author uses the Massachusetts family shelter system to explore the impact of asset and deficit oriented help giving approaches as they are experienced by mothers and service providers The format of the book is unique Following each chapter are the reflections of a mother who has parented in a shelter a front line worker and a shelter director The author and contributors propose a Power With policy and practice framework that runs counter to the prevailing Power Over cultural policy trends Contributors include Rosa Clark Brenda Farrell Deborah Gray Michele Kahan Margaret A Leonard Mary T Lewis Nancy Schwoyer and Elizabeth Ward

Theatre West Four John Anthony Nicholls, 2014-08-19 It was the best of times it was the best of times to paraphrase Dickens famous line That was the experience of the few youthful hopefuls who founded an amazing tradition all those years ago It was the experience too of the many who happened upon or sought out Theatre West Four and joined up to become faithful supporters and contributors It became for most of them the centre of their social activity and natural supplier of entertainment the highlight of each week Too strong a statement Read Tony Nicholl s wonderful discourse on the life and times of TW4 and discover more The Ravens 2 Andres Cristobal Cruz, Elmer A. Ordoñez, 1980
