You Never Call! You Never Write! Joyce Antler, 2007-04-02 In You Never Call You Never Write Joyce Antler provides an illuminating and often amusing history of one of the best known figures in popular culture the Jewish Mother Whether drawn as self sacrificing or manipulative in countless films novels radio and television programs stand up comedy and psychological and historical studies she appears as a colossal figure intensely involved in the lives of her children Antler traces the odyssey of this compelling personality through decades of American culture She reminds us of a time when Jewish mothers were admired for their tenacity and nurturance as in the early twentieth century image of the Yiddishe Mama a sentimental figure popularized by entertainers such as George Jessel Al Jolson and Sophie Tucker and especially by Gertrude Berg whose amazingly successful Molly Goldberg ruled American radio and television for over 25 years Antler explains the transformation of this Jewish Mother into a brassy voiced smothering and shrewish scourge in Irving Howe's words detailing many variations on this negative theme from Philip Roth's Portnoy's Complaint and Woody Allen's Oedipus Wrecks to television shows such as The Nanny Seinfeld and Will and Grace But she also uncovers a new counter narrative leading feminist scholars and stand up comediennesses to see the Jewish Mother in positive terms Continually revised and reinvented the Jewish Mother becomes in Antler's expert hands a unique lens with which to examine vital concerns of American Jews and the culture at large A joy to read You Never Call You Never Write will delight anyone who has ever known or been nurtured by a Jewish Mother and it will be a special source of insight for modern parents As Antler suggests in many ways we are all Jewish Mothers today Roctogenarians Mo Rocca,Jonathan Greenberg,2024-06-11 From beloved CBS Sunday Morning correspondent Mo Rocca author of New York Times bestseller Mobituaries comes an inspiring collection of stories that celebrates the triumphs of people who made their biggest marks late in life Eighty has been the new sixty for about twenty years now In fact there have always been late in life achievers those who declined to go into decline just because they were eligible for social security Journalist humorist and history buff Mo Rocca and coauthor Jonathan Greenberg introduce us to the people past and present who peaked when they could have been puttering breaking out as writers selling out concert halls attempting to set land speed records and in the case of one ninety year tortoise becoming a first time father Take that Al Pacino In the vein of Mobituaries Roctogenarians is a collection of entertaining and unexpected profiles of these unretired titans some long gone a cancer stricken Henri Matisse who began work on his celebrated cut outs when he could no longer paint some very much still living Mel Brooks yukking it up at close to one hundred The amazing cast of characters also includes Mary Church Terrell who at eighty six helped lead sit ins at segregated Washington DC lunch counters in the 1950s and Carol Channing who married the love of her life at eighty two Then there s Peter Mark Roget who began working on his thesaurus in his twenties and completed it at seventy three because sometimes finding the right word takes time With passion and wonder Rocca and Greenberg recount the stories of yesterday s and today s strongest finishers Because with all due respect to the Golden Girls some people will never be content sitting out on the lanai PS Actress Estelle Getty was sixty two when she got her big break And yes she s in the book
