Stars & Star Handlers Whitney Stine, 1985 Stars Richard Dyer, Paul McDonald, 2019-07-25 Through the intensive examination of films magazines advertising and critical texts Dyer analyses the historical ideological and aesthetic significance of stars changing the way we understand screen icons Paying particular attention to icons including Marlon Brando Bette Davis Marlene Dietrich Marilyn Monroe and John Wayne Starlight and Stargazers Helena Goscilo, 2024-05-21 Celebrification has thrived for centuries in literature theater music and other cultural spheres as vividly illustrated by Byron Sarah Bernhardt and Paganini It especially effloresced in cinema after the symbolically named Lumi re brothers pioneered movies as light projected moving life to be contemplated and shared in the intimate darkness of theaters Actors and actresses such as Valentino and Garbo acquired the status of divine beings whose life on and offscreen stimulated fascination and a passionate devotion most frequently invested in religious figures The recent explosion in social media has only amplified immeasurably the scale and intensity of that adulation Yearning for the seemingly transcendent fans as mere mortals seek contact with celebrities as objects of worship that like nocturnal stars are simultaneously remote yet accessible Starlight and Stargazers examines the multifaceted nature and specific manifestations of film celebrification in Czechoslovakia the Czech Republic Poland Soviet Russia Russia and Ukraine before and after 1991 Hollywood Independents Denise Mann, 2008-01-01 Hollywood Independents explores the crucial period between 1948 and 1962 when independent film producers first became key components of the modern corporate entertainment industry Mann examines their impact the decline of the studios the rise of television and the rise of potent talent agencies such as MCA
