Japanese heyday of high economic growth in the 1960s and occasionally the 1970s known in Japan as the Sh wa 30s and 40s Hidaka provides a comprehensive account of an under researched contemporary Japanese media phenomenon by exploring why this nostalgia has been sparked at this particular historical juncture and how that period is represented in the Japanese media today The book accomplishes this through a detailed textual and narrative analysis of representative films and television programmes in relation to their social and cultural context While these nostalgic media renderings are seen by many critics as innocuous this study demonstrates that they do not show a simple yearning for the period but reflects a growing discontent with Japanese post war society In this regard this book concludes that the current nostalgia wave is a critical reaction to the recent past as it seeks to revise historiography through a processes of introspection within popular conceptions of the meta narrative of nostalgia Winner of the Japan Communication Association 2015 Outstanding Book Award
