Neutrosophic Sets and Systems, Vol. 26, 2019. Special Issue: Social Neutrosophy in Latin America Florentin Smarandache, Mohamed Abdel-Basset, Maikel Leyva Vazquez, The Latin American Neutrosophic Science Association was created in 2018 as a result of the initiative of a group of university professors from Mexico and Ecuador The Association has developed an intense work in the investigative context expression of the capacity that neutrosophy has as a tool for understanding and transformation of reality in social benefit Neutrosophic sets as a generalization fuzzy set especially intuitionistic fuzzy sets allows handling a greater number of situations that occur in reality and becomes a facilitator of the approach to the studied object without undermining its complex and multivariate essence In this special edition researchers from six Ecuadorian universities show the results of research projects addressing a wide range of topics related to the social environment of these Higher Education Institutions. The contents include law criminology public and administrative management evaluation of pedagogical scenarios prospective analysis artificial intelligence among other topics. They are many different texts with a common denominator: the social sciences and their relationship with neutrosophy. The progress of these investigations originates a significant change in the ways of validating and reasoning the proposals: the appreciation of neutrality increases the interpretability and the inferential efficacy from the analysis of the results which enunciates a methodological perceptive and objective enrichment in the humanistic sciences in Latin American geographical region.

Handbook of Educational Psychology and Students with Special Needs Andrew J. Martin, Rayne A. Sperling, Kristie J. Newton, 2020-02-18. Handbook of Educational Psychology and Students with Special Needs provides educational and psychological researchers practitioners policy makers and graduate students with critical expertise on the factors and processes relevant to learning for students with special needs. This includes students with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder other executive function difficulties behavior and emotional disorders autism spectrum disorder intellectual disabilities learning disabilities dyslexia language and communication difficulties physical and sensory disabilities and more. With the bulk of educational psychology focused on mainstream or typically developing learners relatively little educational psychology theory research measurement or practice has attended to students with special needs. As clearly demonstrated in this book the factors and processes studied within educational psychology motivation and engagement cognition and neuroscience social emotional development instruction home and school environments and more are vital to all learners especially those at risk or disabled. Integrating guidance from the DSM 5 by the American Psychiatric Association and the International Classification of Diseases ICD 10 by the World Health Organization this book synthesizes and builds on existing interdisciplinary research to establish a comprehensive case for effective psycho educational theory research and practice that address learners with special needs. Twenty seven chapters by experts in the field are structured into three parts on diverse special needs categories perspectives from major educational psychology theories and constructs relevant to special needs learning development and knowledge building.
