Teaching Writing Teachers Of High School English First Year Composition:

Teaching Writing Teachers of High School English & First-year Composition Robert Tremmel, William Broz, 2002 What do writing teachers need to know And what do they need to know how to do Preparing To Teach Writing James D. Williams, 2003-03-01 Third edition of popular textbook for writing English and language arts methods courses provides a comprehensive survey of theories research and methods associated with teaching composition successfully Includes examples and pedagogical aids Teaching Writing in High School and College Thomas C. Thompson, 2002 Contains fifteen essays in which the authors explore the possibility of partnerships and exchanges between high school and college instructors with the goal of improving the ability of students to succeed at college level writing tasks Possibilities, Challenges, and Changes in English Teacher Education Today Heidi L. Hallman, Kristen Pastore-Capuana, Donna L. Pasternak, 2019-05-24 This book focuses on English teacher educators experiences concerning professionalization and teacher identity The term professionalization itself can be problematized Popkewitz 1994 as it connotes adherence to realities to professional norms that are based within particular histories Yet teacher educators must confront how to mentor prospective teachers into the field and how changes to the field manifest changes to what it means to be a professional In research about changes in English teacher education over the past twenty years Pasternak Caughlan Hallman Renzi and Rush 2017 presented five distinct foci of ELA programs that have evolved 1 changes to field experiences within teacher education programs 2 altered conceptions of teaching literature and literacy within the context of ELA 3 increased adherence to standardization 4 changing demographics of students in K 12 classrooms and 5 increased expectations for use of technology within ELA These foci impact how professionals in ELA are viewed both from inside and outside the profession and how they navigate these tensions in teacher education programs to define what it means to identify as an English teacher Throughout the book chapter authors articulate dilemmas that focus around professionalization and teacher identity questioning what it means to be an English teacher today While some chapters suggest methods for increased awareness of tensions within practice other chapters approach professionalization and teacher identity by asking what the limits of methods classes and teacher education might be in preparing ELA teachers and supporting them to remain in the profession Today s political environment devalues teachers and teaching a situation that has critics deriding the educational standards at institutes of higher education while concurrently lauding alternative programs that do not have to adhere to the same rigorous teacher certification requirements English teacher educators are now being asked to design programs soften requirements and recruit and mentor teacher candidates to a profession that in the past certified more new English teachers than it could employ The chapters in this book explore what it means to educate and be an English teacher educator under these conditions The Online Writing Conference: A Guide for Teachers and Tutors Beth Hewett, 2015-03-20 More writing courses than ever are being taught online and effective online writing instruction requires teachers to communicate deliberately and clearly in order to have productive relationships with their students In The Online Writing Conference A Guide for Teachers and Tutors former chair of the CCCC Committee for Effective Practices in Online Writing Instruction Beth L Hewett articulates the how and why of one to one online writing conference pedagogy Complete with an instructor s study guide and informed by the principles set forth in the CCCC Position Statement of Principles and Example Effective Practices for OWI her updated text provides examples and transcripts of synchronous and asynchronous instructor student interaction targeted lessons and conferencing action plans that help instructors hone their pedagogical practice from formatting comments to showing regard for students
