

TEARING DOWN PRAGUE'S JEWISH TOWN

Ghetto Clearance and the Legacy of Middle-Class Ethnic Politics around 1900

Cathleen M. Giustino

Tearing Down Pragues Jewish Town

Eszter Gantner, Heidi Hein-Kircher, Oliver Hochadel

Tearing Down Pragues Jewish Town:

Tearing Down Prague's Jewish Town Cathleen M. Giustino, 2003 Based upon a rich array of rare documents this book examines the local social and ethnic interest group struggles that fueled the large scale destruction and reconstruction of the city's former Jewish ghetto in 1887

Interurban Knowledge Exchange in Southern and Eastern Europe, 1870-1950 Eszter Gantner, Heidi Hein-Kircher, Oliver Hochadel, 2020-10-22 Around 1900 cities in Southern and Eastern Europe were persistently labeled backward and delayed. Allegedly they had no alternative but to follow the role model of the metropolises of London, Paris or Vienna. This edited volume fundamentally questions this assumption. It shows that cities as diverse as Barcelona, Berdyansk, Budapest, Lviv, Milan, Moscow, Prague, Warsaw and Zagreb pursued their own agendas of modernization. In order to solve their pressing problems with respect to urban planning and public health they searched for best practices abroad. The solutions they gleaned from other cities were eclectic to fit the specific needs of a given urban space and were thus often innovative. This applied urban knowledge was generated through interurban networks and multi-directional exchanges. Yet in the period around 1900 this transnational municipalism often clashed with the forging of urban and national identities, highlighting the tensions between the universal and the local. This interurban perspective helps to overcome nationalist perspectives in historiography as well as outdated notions of center and periphery. This volume will appeal to scholars from a large number of disciplines including urban historians, historians of Eastern and Southern Europe, historians of science and medicine, and scholars interested in transnational connections.

Prague and Beyond Kateřina Čapková, Hillel J. Kieval, 2021-08-06 A comprehensive history of the Jews of the Bohemian Lands whose goal is to narrate and analyze the Jewish experience in the Bohemian Lands as an integral and inseparable part of the development of Central Europe and its peoples from the sixteenth century to the present day.

Prague Chad Bryant, 2021-05-25 How does the outsider find community and a sense of place? Chad Bryant tells the stories of five ordinary people over two centuries who struggled to make lives in Prague, a city whose beauty masks a history of exclusionary nationalism. Exploring the tense interplay of cohesion and difference, Prague is a powerful meditation on the need to belong.

The World of Prostitution in Late Imperial Austria Nancy Meriwether Wingfield, 2017 This study of prostitution addresses issues of female agency and experience as well as contemporary fears about sexual coercion and the forced movement of girls, women, and police surveillance. Rather than treating prostitutes solely as victims or problems to be solved, as so often has been the case in much of the literature, Nancy M. Wingfield seeks to find the historical subjects behind fin de siècle constructions of prostitutes, to restore agency to the women who participated in commercial sex, illuminate their quotidian experiences, and to place these women, some of whom made a rational economic decision to sell their bodies, in the larger social context of late imperial Austria. Wingfield investigates the interactions of both registered and clandestine prostitutes with the vice police and other supervisory agents, including physicians and court officials, as well as with the inhabitants of these women's world, including brothel clients and madams and pimps rather than focusing top down on the state constructed apparatus of surveillance Close reading of a broad range of primary and secondary sources shows that some prostitutes in late imperial Austria took control over their own fates at least as much as other working class women in the last decades before the end of the Monarchy And after 1918 bureaucratic transition did not necessarily parallel political transition Thus there was no dramatic change in the regulation of prostitution in the successor states Legislation which changed regulation only piecemeal after the war often continued to incorporate forms of control reflecting continuity in attitudes about women s sexuality Shattered Spaces Michael Meng,2011-11-29 After the Holocaust the empty silent spaces of bombed out synagogues cemeteries and Jewish districts were all that was left in many German and Polish cities with prewar histories rich in the sights and sounds of Jewish life What happened to this scarred landscape after the war and how have Germans Poles and Jews encountered these ruins over the past sixty years In the postwar period city officials swept away many sites despite protests from Jewish leaders But in the late 1970s church groups local residents political dissidents and tourists demanded the preservation of the few ruins still standing Since the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1989 this desire to preserve and restore has grown stronger In one of the most striking and little studied shifts in postwar European history the traces of a long neglected Jewish past have gradually been recovered thanks to the rise of heritage tourism nostalgia for ruins international discussions about the Holocaust and a pervasive longing for cosmopolitanism in a globalizing world Examining this transformation from both sides of the Iron Curtain Michael Meng finds no divided memory along West East lines but rather a shared memory of tensions and paradoxes that crosses borders throughout Central Europe His narrative reveals the changing dynamics of the local and the transnational as Germans Poles Americans and Israelis confront a built environment that is inevitably altered with the passage of time Shattered Spaces exemplifies urban history at its best uncovering a surprising and moving postwar story of broad contemporary interest Capital Cities in the Aftermath of Empires Emily Gunzburger Makas,Tanja Damljanovic Conley,2009-12-04 Exploring the urban and planning history of cities across Central and South eastern Europe against a background of rising nationalism this book contains fourteen studies of individual cities Introductory chapters in the book outline the political history of the area and how the developments in the different countries were interconnected Prague 20th Century Architecture Michael Kohout,Vladimir Slapeta,Stephan Templ,1999-04-22 This pocket sized yet comprehensive guidebook to modern architecture in Prague shows its development from the Art Nouveau and beginnings of the Modern Style at the turn of the 20th century the unique Cubist buildings from the years before World War I the National Style of the newly established Czechoslovak Republic the functionalist avant garde of the inter war period the most remarkable examples of post World War II buildings and the revival of architectural production after 1989 200 pages cover 220 buildings spanning the period 1900 to 1997 Each entry contains a descriptive text period photographs and selected entries are provided with plans An indispensable companion for discovering the vast architectural heritage of the Czech capital Objects of War Leora Auslander, Tara Zahra, 2018-05-15 Discusses the ways in which material culture affected and reflected how people grappled with social cultural and material upheavals during times of war A History of Czechs and Jews Martin Wein, 2015-02-11 Was Israel founded by Czechoslovakia A History of Czechs and Jews examines this question and the resulting findings are complex Czechoslovakia did provide critical secret military sponsorship to Israel around 1948 but this alliance was short lived and terminated with the Prague Trial of 1952 Israel's Czech guns were German as much as Czech and the Soviet Union strongly encouraged Czechoslovakia's help for Israel Most importantly however the Czechoslovak Israeli military cooperation was only part of a much larger picture Since the mid 1800s Czechs and Jews have been systematically comparing themselves to each other in literature music politics diplomacy media and historiography A shared perception of similar fates of two small nations trapped between East and West in constant existential danger helped forge a Czech Jewish national friendship amid periods of estrangement Yet this Czech Jewish national friendship an idea that can be traced from Masaryk and Kafka via Weizman and Ben Gurion to Havel and Netanyahu was more myth than reality Relations were often mixed and highly dependent on larger historical developments affecting Central Europe and the Middle East As the Czech Republic emerges as Israel's main EU ally this book provides a timely analysis of this old new alliance and is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in History and Jewish Studies
