Techniques In Teaching Writing:

Techniques in Teaching Writing Ann Raimes, 1983-12 Tactics for Listening is a comprehensive three level listening series that features high interest topics to engage and motivate students Strategies for Teaching Writing Roger Caswell, 2004 Writing is the vehicle for communication In addition to promoting the need for good communication skills the teaching of the writing process provides opportunities for students to develop clear thinking skills Writing is also a developmental process that each student can successfully experience at different levels when approached systematically Based upon this premise this Action Tool presents the five stages of writing prewrite write revise edit and publish in a manner that allows writing to be taught as a process Strategies for Teaching Writing An ASCD Action Tool makes writing in the classroom manageable The tools provide a step by step approach to teaching the writing process The tools include complete how to use instructions suggestions classroom examples and cross curricular activities Using the tools teachers can grant students time to write to process their thoughts and develop a way to analyze their thinking using cognitive reasoning instead of impromptu thought The Action Tool also provide teachers with assessment strategies to assess students participation and progress at each stage of the writing process Techniques in Teaching Writing, 1993 Inside Out Dan Kirby, Dawn Latta Kirby, Tom Liner, 2004 It all begins inside inside the heads of our kids There are ideas in there and language and lots of possibilities Writing is a pulling together of that inside stuff Writing is a rehearsal in meaning making The teacher's role in all this is to support those rehearsals The first edition of this popular textbook was born out of notes such as this that a young professor and a young high school teacher wrote to each other about the teaching of writing Dan Kirby and Tom Liner surprised themselves and the rest of academia by writing a book that other teachers found to be both entertaining and useful The first and second editions of Inside Out have helped both preservice and in service teachers to implement practical and authentic teaching techniques in their classrooms for the last twenty plus years Now the long awaited third edition is at hand this time with the addition of Dawn Latta Kirby's insightful work based on nearly 30 years of experience in teaching writing Together the three authors have thoroughly updated Inside Out with the latest information on technology a substantial reference section on resources and loads of new examples And they have gone a step further they have rethought their fundamental assumptions about literacy and learning to write and have incorporated this innovative thinking into two new opening chapters and additional revisions throughout the book They have introduced fresh concepts overhauled some chapters and added new ones so that the third edition includes completely new material in the chapter on expository writing an updated chapter on poetry additional ideas about using portfolios publishing student writing with and without computers and working with young adult literature all new resources in a chapter by Karen Hartman Director of the Colorado Writing Project Still irreverent and skeptical of the conventional wisdom about teaching and learning still abhorring corporate strength writing pedagogies these authors echo the voices of many teachers who remain committed to teaching to the needs of their students Most of all they give teachers the means to prove their belief that learning to write is not just for the few or the gifted

Teaching Writing in the Content Areas Vicki Urquhart,Monette McIver,2005-05-15 Most educators intuitively understand the critical relationship between thinking and writing writing allows us to express what we think but the very act of writing spurs a process of exploration that changes our thinking and helps us learn Teaching Writing in the Content Areas examines nearly 30 years of research to identify how teachers can incorporate writing instruction that helps students master the course content and improve their overall achievement Building on the recommendations of the National Commission on Writing authors Vicki Urquhart and Monette McIver introduce four critical issues teachers should address when they include writing in their content courses Creating a positive environment for the feedback and guidance students need at various stages including prewriting drafting revising and editing Monitoring and assessing how much students are learning through their writing Choosing computer programs that best enhance the writing process Strengthening their knowledge of course content and their own writing skills The authors also provide 35 classroom strategies practices and handouts that teachers can easily implement in most subject areas or grade levels From prewriting guides and work sheets to instructional guidance and analysis the strategies offer realistic options to help teachers tailor writing assignments and instruction to the needs of each class Teaching Writing in the Content Areas is more than a primer for teaching the mechanics of writing it is a research based guide to regularly engaging students in writing that pushes them to express themselves clearly to explore new ideas and to become critical thinkers

Teaching Academic ESL Writing Eli Hinkel,2003-10-17 Teaching Academic ESL Writing Practical Techniques in Vocabulary and Grammar fills an important gap in teacher professional preparation by focusing on the grammatical and lexical features that are essential for all ESL writing teachers and student writers to know The fundamental assumption is that before students of English for academic purposes can begin to successfully produce academic writing they must have the foundations of language in place the language tools grammar and vocabulary they need to build a text This text offers a compendium of techniques for teaching writing grammar and lexis to second language learners that will help teachers effectively target specific problem areas of students writing Based on the findings of current research including a large scale study of close to 1 500 non native speakers essays this book works with several sets of simple rules that collectively can make a noticeable and important difference in the quality of ESL students writing. The teaching strategies and techniques are based on a highly practical principle for efficiently and successfully maximizing learners language gains. Part I provides the background for the text and a sample of course curriculum guidelines to meet the learning needs of second language teachers of writing and second language writers. Parts II and III include the key elements of classroom teaching: what to teach and why, possible ways to teach the material in the classroom, common errors found in student prose and ways to teach students to avoid them, teaching activities and suggestions, and questions for discussion in a teacher training course. Appendices to chapters provide supplementary word and phrase lists, collocations, sentence chunks, and diagrams that teachers can use as needed. The book is designed as a text for courses that prepare teachers to work with post secondary EAP students and as a professional resource for teachers of students in EAP courses.

Practical Ideas for Teaching Writing as a Process at the High School and College Levels

Carol Booth Olson, 1997. The concept of writing as process has revolutionized the way many view composition and this book is organized by the stages of that process.
