Smashing Time:

A Time to Risk All Clodagh Finn, 2017-10-13 Clodagh Finn has travelled throughout Europe to piece together the story of this remarkable unknown Irish woman meeting many of those children Mary Elmes saved. Here in a book packed with courage, heroism, adventure and tragedy, her story is finally remembered. The children called her Miss Mary and they remember her kindness still. She gave them food and shelter and later risked her life to help them escape the convoys bound for Auschwitz. Turning her back on a brilliant academic career, Mary Elmes ventured into a war zone to help children in the Spanish Civil War. In 1939 she fled Franco's forces but continued to work with refugees in France when the Second World War broke out. In 1942 when it became evident that Jews were being deported to their deaths, she smuggled children to safety in the boot of her car. She was arrested and imprisoned by the Gestapo but went straight back to work after her release. When the war was over, Mary married and settled down, never speaking about what she had done. Her story was forgotten. In A Time to Risk All, her remarkable story is finally remembered as it should be. A compelling portrait of an unsung Irish heroine of two wars. Madeleine Keane, Literary Editor, Sunday Independent. Brings to light the life of Mary Elmes, showing a remarkable independent and courageous woman whose compassion knew no borders. Yvonne Altman, O'Connor, Culture and Education Director, Irish Jewish Museum.

An Unbelievable Hoot Jeffrey Kershaw, 2018-06-19 An Unbelievable Hoot is a funny risqué novel about a lawyer who owns land formerly used as an industrial chemical factory but is now occupied by a number of industrial units including bakers. Diggers, a plant hire company. Having done well, they seek to extend their showroom but in digging out to put in foundations for the extension, they unwittingly release gases from chemicals previously buried. These have a strange effect on passers-by. A magistrate unknowingly breathes in these gases before entering. Do it All, a hardware superstore. He is compelled to assault a lady who is bent over examining some cans of paint. She turns out to be an off-duty policewoman who immediately arrests him. The gases are also breathed in at an institution for retired lady civil servants who then attack young men working in the establishment. They are arrested and everybody has to appear in Court. Norris, nickname Nosey Parker, a nasally well-endowed journalist headlines the story in the Daily Spread and sets out to investigate. A hilarious journey begins.

A Time for Us Josephine Cox, 2012-01-19 Lucy Nolan has everything she could wish for until tragedy intervenes. Josephine Cox's A Time For Us is a heartrending saga of love, tragedy and undying hope. Perfect for fans of Cathy Sharp and Dilly Court. Lucy Nolan is the golden girl. The only daughter of local grocers Sally and Mike Nolan, she's grown up in a home of total love and security. The one thing her heart desires is that Jack Hanson might ask her to marry him and when he does eventually propose, Lucy is prepared to give up everything to be with him, even though it means leaving her beloved parents to live abroad where Jack has been offered an exciting business opportunity. But then, almost on the eve of the marriage itself, tragedy strikes. And for the first time in her life, Lucy is forced to realise that Fate, which has been so kind to her, can also be just as cruel. What readers are saying about A Time For Us: One of the best Josephine Cox books around.

The characters really struck a chord with me and I felt very sad when the book had finished Josephine Cox excels at providing entertaining and authentic characters It is a brilliant read for those who want a light book with sparkling characters and a plot in a realistic setting I just couldn't put this book down a real page turner I love all Josephine Cox books but this one was exceptional In the City Paul Du Noyer,2009-11-10 A dense and colourful account of one of the most vibrant musical centres in the world In the City almost puts you on that train to London Guardian In this fascinating history of London's music which was the 2009 Sunday Times Music Book of the Year Paul Du Noyer critically acclaimed music writer and founding editor of MOJO celebrates the people and places that have made London the most exciting and diverse musical city on earth The West End musicals Ronnie Scott's jazz club Abbey Road mod culture the Kinks the Who and the Rolling Stones are just as much a part of London as the Houses of Parliament Big Ben and the Routemaster Du Noyer's captivating book charts the city's music history and landmarks and will appeal to residents visitors and exiles alike Brocky David Hassall,2009 Bad Love Beyond Kevin L. Ride the Revolution Suze Clemitson,2015-10-22 Ride the Revolution represents the best new writing on cycling from women involved in the sport at all levels as fans key personnel riders photographers journalists and presenters When Marie Marvingt decided to ride the 1908

Tour de France she was told absolument non by M Degranges and the Societe du Tour de France Instead she rode each stage 15 minutes after the official race had departed and finished all 4 488 kms of the parcours a feat that only 36 of the 110 men who entered the race could equal Her motto I decided to do everything better always and forever It s in the spirit of Breakneck Marie that this book has been written This is not an anthology of women writing about women s cycling Nor is it an anthology of women writing about men s bottoms in lycra or peloton crushes or the curse of helmet hair This is an book that celebrates the diversity of women s writing about the glorious sometimes murky often bizarre and frequently hilarious world of cycling in all its soapy operatic glory from the professional sport to the club run on the roadside and in the saddle behind the scenes and on the massage table These fresh and vibrant voices examine the sport from a new perspective to provide insights that rarely make it into the mainstream what is it like to be a top women rider or work in their support team Where is the women s sport heading and when will more women be represented at the highest level of sport s governance And how do you get out and ride your bike when the news is full of stories of cyclists dying and you can t get clothing that fits place and times UK I was fourteen when I read this book around the age the kids were in this story of boarding school days in Africa I was amazed at the experience jealous of the freedoms kids had then but scared for some of the dangers and violence too Boy much of it would be totally illegal today It s a cool book which I think was intended for grown ups but pretty exciting for teens who are interested in boys and girls adventures in wildest Africa Wish I could have been there Callum O Neill

Canada Having been born and raised in East Africa I related to the author s memories and descriptions of life The songs of the birds and the sounds of the bush that are unique the colours the dryness the vastness the native people and their amazing history all came flooding back Once you have sampled living in Africa you never really leave it behind A good read and highly recommended for anyone with a taste for Africa Fiona Firth Australia A wonderful account of not just the author s life in Tanganyika but an excellent record of the children growing up in a country where they had to go to a boarding school lost in the bush and far from home So close to my own experience it brings my memories flooding back Barbara Laing an alumna of the place and times UK Feels like I am there a young boy growing up all over again I love this book Ted Weir
