Farwell, J. Karl Nicholas, 2021-10-21 A stingy man won't drink branch water till there's a flood and it is a mighty triflin' sort o' man'd let either his dog or his woman starve Some places are so crowded you couldn't cuss a cat without gettin' fur in your mouth For almost thirty years Horace Kephart collected sayings like these from his neighbors and friends in the area around Bryson City North Carolina Kephart a librarian with an interest in languages and in the American Frontier left his career and his family in midlife to settle in what was at the turn of the century the wilds of the Great Smokey Mountains An assiduous collector and observer he compiled twenty six journals of notes on the folkways and speech of the Southern Appalachians at a time when the region was still largely isolated Smokey Mountain Voices is a dictionary of Southern Appalachian speech based on Kephart's journals and publications it is also a compendium of mountain lore Harold Farwell and J. Karl Nicholas have compiled not only quaint and peculiar words but jokes and comic exchanges Many of the ordinary words that comprised an important part of the language of the mountaineers are preserved here thanks to Kephart's meticulous collecting The editors have incorporated the original quotations with Kephart's definitions and explanations to create a rich source for the study of southern mountain speech And within the echoes of these Smokey Mountain voices exists some of the joy and fullness of life that Horace Kephart shared and recorded Smoky Mountain Voices will be of interest to dialectologists historians of American English students of regional literature scholars of folk life and laypersons interested in Southern Appalachia Gospel Music Networking Guide ,1999 *Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Taunton, Mass. Decoration Day in the Mountains Alan Jabbour, Karen Singer Jabbour, 2010-05-31 Decoration Day is a late spring or summer tradition that involves cleaning a community cemetery decorating it with flowers holding a religious service in the cemetery and having dinner on the ground These commemorations seem to predate the post Civil War celebrations that ultimately gave us our national Memorial Day Little has been written about this tradition but it is still observed widely throughout the Upland South from North Carolina to the Ozarks Written by internationally recognized folklorist Alan Jabbour and illustrated with more than a hundred photographs taken by Karen Singer Jabbour Decoration Day in the Mountains is an in depth exploration of this little known cultural tradition The Jabbours illuminate the meanings behind the rituals and reveal how the tradition fostered a grassroots movement to hold the federal government to its promises about cemeteries left behind when families were removed to make way for Fontana Dam and Great Smoky Mountains National Park Richly illustrated and vividly written Decoration Day in the Mountains presents a compelling account of a widespread and long standing Southern cultural practice
