Stanley Spencervisions From A Berkshire Village:

Distortion and Love Nigel Rapport,2016-07-07 In this ground breaking book a theory of distortion of the way in which the processes of human life are subject to interference diversion and transformation is developed by way of the art of one of Britain s greatest twentieth century painters and that art s public reception Devoted to his native village of Cookham on Thames Stanley Spencer painted not only landscapes and portraits with loving detail but also the memory feelings which he felt were a sacred part of his consciousness Yet Spencer was also a controversial public figure with some taking the view that his visionary paintings were ugly distortions of human life even marks of an immoral nature Examining how Spencer lived his vision how he painted it and wrote it and also how his attempts to communicate that vision were received by his contemporaries and have continued to be interpreted since his death the author posits distortion as key an intrinsic aspect both of human creation and of human interaction What we intend to make to say to do and have done often mutates in the process of being expressed or put into effect we live amid distortion Love the affective appreciation of one another is then a means by which we accommodate distortion and its consequences in our lives An illustration through Stanley Spencer s story of significant aspects of a human condition this book will appeal across disciplines including to art historians and students of Spencer s work as well as to scholars of anthropology with interests in creativity perception and interpretation British Culture and the First World War Toby Thacker,2014-09-25 The First World War has been mythologized since 1918 and many paradigmatic views of it that it was pointless that brave soldiers were needlessly sacrificed are deeply embedded in the British consciousness More than in any other country these collective British memories were influenced by the experiences and the work of writers painters and musicians This book revisits the British experience of the War through the eyes and ears of a diverse group of carefully selected novelists poets composers and painters It examines how they reacted to and portrayed their experiences in the trenches on the Western Front in distant theatres of war and on the home front in words pictures and music that would have a profound influence on subsequent British perceptions of the war Rupert Brooke Vera Brittain Richard Nevinson Paul Nash Edward Elgar and T E Lawrence are amongst the figures discussed in this original exploration of the First World War and British collective memory The book includes illustrations and maps to aid further study and research I Am Dynamite Nigel Rapport,2004-03-01 Power is conventionally regarded as being held by social institutions We are taught to believe that it is these social structures that determine the environment and circumstances of individual lives In I Am Dynamite the anthropologist Nigel Rappaport argues for a different view Focusing on the lives and works of the writer and Auschwitz survivor Primo Levi refugee and engineer Ben Glaser Israeli ceramicist and immigrant Rachel Sibley Stein artist Stanley Spencer and philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche he shows how we can have the capacity and inclination to formulate life projects It is in the pursuit of these life projects that is making our life our work that we can avoid the structures of ideology and institution The Great Flood Edward Platt,2019-10-31 A BBC Radio 4 Book of the

Week Flooding has always threatened the rainy wind swept islands of the United Kingdom but it is becoming more frequent and more severe Combining travel writing and reportage with readings of history literature and myth Edward Platt explores the way floods have shaped the physical landscape of Britain and left their mark on its inhabitants During the course of two years which coincided with the record breaking floods of the winter of 2013 14 Platt travelled around the country visiting places that had flooded and meeting the people affected He visited flooded villages and towns and expanses of marsh and Fen threatened by the winter storms and travelled along the edge of the drowned plain that used to connect Britain to continental Europe He met people struggling to stop their houses falling into the sea and others whose homes had been engulfed He investigated disasters natural and man made and heard about the conflicting attitudes towards those charged with preventing them The Great Flood dramatizes the experience of being flooded and considers what will happen as the planet warms and the waters rise illuminating the reality behind the statistics and headlines that we all too often ignore

Distortion Nigel Rapport, 2017-08-14 Distortion occurs between the intentions of actions and their outcomes It can also occur between thoughts and actions between words and how they are interpreted between a statement of law and its enactment between a vision and its artistic representation and between a cultural tradition or habitus and its animation in contemporary contexts Escaping the bounds of relationality of structuration and of systemics distortion is a form of complex connectedness that has seldom been addressed in the social sciences as a phenomenon in its own right This volume argues for the key importance of distortion as a concept in the social sciences and attempts to refine it as a concept Each chapter examines distortion in the context of an ethnographic case study examining how its conceptualization can further comprehension of a particular ethnographic situation It is contended that distortion is an account of the emergent or revolutionary nature of human life an emergence that can be attached to particular antecedent conditions in a processual or temporal way yet is a transformation of the essential nature of those conditions Coming to terms with distortion adds significantly to the social scientific appreciation of human activity and creativity of conscious experience of the nature of social interaction and exchange and of the complexity of social milieu Distortion should be essential reading on advanced undergraduate and postgraduate modules on social theory contemporary issues and methodologies communication sociality materiality and intersectionality

British Artists and the Modernist Landscape Ysanne Holt, 2018-01-12 Title first published in 2003 In this detailed study of the landscapes and rural scenes of Britain and France made by artists like George Clausen Philip Wilson Steer Augustus John Laura Knight J D Fergusson and Spencer Gore Ysanne Holt investigates the imaginary geographies behind the pictures and reconsiders the relationship between national identity Englishness and the native landscape Combining close investigation of important works with a broader enquiry into the appeal of the Mediterranean for an age preoccupied with cultural degeneracy and bodily health Ysanne Holt draws fascinating conclusions about the impact of modernism on the British tradition of landscape painting
