Staples Markets And Cultural Change Selected Essays:

Staples, Markets, and Cultural Change Harold Adams Innis, 1995 This new edition of Harold Innis's essays published on the occasion of his centenary assembles his most significant and representative writing Included are many of Innis's essays on cultural issues and economic development subjects he explored throughout his life that have not been readily accessible before

Cultural Studies and Political Economy Robert E. Babe, 2010-05-10 This book addresses the notorious split between the two fields of cultural studies and political economy Drawing on the works of Harold Innis Theodor Adorno Raymond Williams Richard Hoggart E P Thompson and other major theorists in the two fields Robert E Babe shows that political economy can be reconciled to certain aspects of cultural studies particularly with regards to cultural materialism Uniting the two fields has proven to be a complex undertaking though it makes practical sense given the close interaction between political economy and cultural studies Babe examines the evolution of cultural studies over time and its changing relationship with political economy The intersections between the two fields center around three subjects the cultural biases of money the time space dialectic and the dialectic of information

The Next Rural Economies Greg Halseth, Sean Patrick Markey, David Bruce, 2010 This book discusses the future of rural development and the recognition of the growing importance of place based economies where the unique attributes and assets of individual places determine their attractiveness for particular types of activities and investments New understandings of competitiveness and conceptualizations of a new economy underline the importance of making strategic investments in community infrastructure Doing things at the local and regional scales matters and not doing things has consequences Topics include seasonal economies amenity migration IT industries green energy and transportation developments

A Political Economy of Canadian Broadcasting David Skinner, 2025-01-31 A Political Economy of Canadian Broadcasting takes readers from the days of the telegraph to the current digital age examining the role of public broadcasting in the wider context of regulation private capital and foreign programming This comprehensive history spans over a hundred years highlighting the shifting technological character of the media system within anglophone Canada and the key place of public broadcasting within it Situated in Canada's broader economic history David Skinner's account ably demonstrates how broadcast regulation has been derived from the historical relationships between the Canadian state and private capital and that this has tended to sideline its social goals The book concludes with suggestions for encouraging the creation of distinctively Canadian programming Coming just after the first major reform to Canada's broadcast legislation in three decades A Political Economy of Canadian Broadcasting is a timely contribution to the history of broadcasting and the policy discussions that frame it

Global Entertainment Media Tanner Mirrlees, 2013-04-02 A critical cultural materialist introduction to the study of global entertainment media In Global Entertainment Media Tanner Mirrlees undertakes an analysis of the ownership production distribution marketing exhibition and consumption of global films and television shows with an eye to political

Natural Resource and Environmental Policy, 2nd edition, 2005 This expanded and updated edition of Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy examines policy making in one of the most significant areas of activity in the Canadian economy natural resources and the environment It discusses the evolution of resource policies from the early era of exploitation to the present era of resource and environmental management including the Kyoto Protocol Using an integrated political economy and policy perspective the book provides an analytic framework through which ideological perspectives administrative structures and substantive issues are explored R sum de l diteur Canadian Natural Resource and Environmental Policy, 2nd ed. Melody Hessing, Michael Howlett, Tracy Summerville, 2011-11-01 In this new and updated edition the authors once again examine policy making in one of the most significant areas of activity in the Canadian economy natural resources and the environment and discuss the evolution of resource policies from the early era of exploitation to the present era of resource and environmental management Using an integrated political economy and policy perspective the book provides an analytic framework from which the foundation of ideological perspectives administrative structures and substantive issues are explored Departing from traditional approaches that emphasize a single discipline or perspective it offers an interdisciplinary framework with which to think through ecological political economic and social issues It also provides a multi stage analysis of policy making from agenda setting through the evaluation process The integration of social science perspectives and the combination of theoretical and empirical work make this innovative book one of the most comprehensive analyses of Canadian natural resource and environmental policy to date Its illumination of the key elements of government policy making in this critical sector and its new outline of the evolution of the Kyoto Protocol makes it a useful textbook and resource for students of environmental and public policy policy makers and environmental organizations Harold Innis on Peter Pond William J. Buxton, 2020-02-06 Best known for his writings on economic history and communications Harold Innis also produced a body of biographical work that paid particular attention to cultural memory and how it is enriched by the study of neglected historical figures In this compelling volume William Buxton addresses Innis s engagement with the legacy of the fur trader and adventurer Peter Pond Harold Innis on Peter Pond comprises eight texts by Innis including his 1930 biography of Pond as well as his writings on the explorer s myriad activities The book also features a collection of eight letters exchanged between Innis and Florence Cannon a descendent of Pond with a strong interest in her ancestor s life and times and an unpublished 1932 article on Pond s 1773-75 activities as a fur trader on the upper Mississippi written by Innis s former student R Harvey Fleming Situating Innis s writings on Pond in relation to his broader body of biographical work Buxton interprets what these texts tell us about Innis s intellectual practice historiography and the writing of biography The book explores how Innis s perspectives shifted with changing intellectual and political circumstances and shows that his advocacy of Pond as an unrecognized father of confederation challenged conventional views of Canadian nation building A critical edition of previously overlooked biographical texts Harold Innis on Peter Pond traces what these writings disclose about the biographer s character and values even as they discuss their subject

Canada at the WTO Marc D. Froese, 2010-01-01 A clear concise and compelling account of Canada s role in the governance of international trade Stephen McBride Centre for Global Political Economy Simon Fraser University Culture + the State: Nationalisms Gabrielle Eva Marie Zezulka-Mailloux, James Gifford, 2003 Hollywood North Mike Gasher, 2002 British Columbia s billion dollar film industry trails behind only those of California and New York This book recounts the story of British Columbia s rapid rise from relative obscurity in the film world to its current status as Hollywood North Gasher positions the industry as a model for commercial film production in the twenty first century one strongly shaped by a perception of cinema as a medium not of culture but of regional industrial development He addresses the specific economic and geographic factors that contribute to the province s success such as the low Canadian dollar and BC s proximity to Los Angeles Hollywood North is an important book that brings into focus the tension between globalization and localization in the film industry Community and Frontier John C. Lehr, 2012-05-11 A social and economic history of one of the oldest Ukrainian settlements in Western Canada Established in 1896 the Stuartburn colony was one of the earliest Ukrainian settlements in western Canada Based on an analysis of government records pioneer memoirs and the Ukrainian and English language press Community and Frontier is a detailed examination of the social economic and geographical challenges of this unique ethnic community It reveals a complex web of inter ethnic and colonial relationships that created a community that was a far cry from the homogeneous ethnic block settlement feared by the opponents of eastern European immigration Instead ethnic relationships and attitudes transplanted from Europe affected the development of trade within the colony while Ukrainian religious factionalism and the predatory colonial attitudes of mainstream Canadian churches fractured the community and for decades contributed to social dysfunction Speaking Power to Truth Michael Keren, Richard Hawkins, 2015-11-20 Online discourse has created a new media environment for contributions to public life one that challenges the social significance of the role of public intellectuals intellectuals who whether by choice or by circumstance offer commentary on issues of the day The value of such commentary is rooted in the assumption that by virtue of their training and experience intellectuals possess knowledge that they understand what constitutes knowledge with respect to a particular topic are able to distinguish it from mere opinion and are in a position to define its relevance in different contexts When intellectuals comment on matters of public concern they are accordingly presumed to speak truth whether they are writing books or op ed columns or appearing as guests on radio and television news programs At the same time with increasing frequency discourse on public life is taking place online This new digital environment is characterized by abundance an abundance of speakers discussion and access But has this abundance of discourse this democratization of knowledge as some describe it brought with it a corresponding increase in truth Casting doubt on the assertion that online discourse with its proliferation of voices will somehow yield collective wisdom Speaking Power to Truth raises concerns that this wealth of digitally enabled commentary is in fact too often bereft of the hallmarks of intellectual discourse an epistemological framework and the provision of evidence to substantiate claims Instead the pursuit of truth finds itself in competition with the quest for public reputation access to influence and enhanced visibility But as knowledge is drawn into the orbit of power and as the line between knowledge and opinion is blurred what role will the public intellectual play in the promotion and nurturing of democratic processes and goals In exploring the implications of the digital transition the contributors to Speaking Power to Truth provide both empirical evidence of and philosophical reflection on the current and future role of the public intellectual in a technologically mediated public sphere Contributions by Barry Cooper Jacob Foster Karim Ally Kassam Boaz Miller Liz Pirnie and Eleanor Townsley Identity Landscapes Ellyn Lyle, 2020-03-09 Beginning from the notion that self is constructed contributors in Identity Landscapes Contemplating Place and the Construction of Self are particularly interested in how relationships with place inform identity development Locating identity inquiry in methodologies that encourage an explicit examination of self e g autoethnography self study autobiographical inquiry a r tography and reflexive inquiry authors situate themselves epistemologically and geographically as they explore where place and identity converge Through critical qualitative creative and arts integrated approaches this collection aims to advance thought regarding the myriad ways that place informs identity development Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis Robert E. Babe, 2015-04-21 Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis is an original critical in depth analysis of the media and communication thought of Canada s most highly acclaimed scholar Harold Adams Innis Even in Canada however Innis s writings until now have been only partially cited and interpreted Innis is usually stereotyped as being merely an economic historian fixated on previous civilizations whereas in fact he was an astute analyst whose main concerns were with present problems and future trajectories In the United States meanwhile Innis s media and communication writings have been quite neglected and even denigrated Drawing on Innis s less frequently cited work including his long neglected Political Economy in the Modern State Robert Babe opens up Innis's media scholarship as a whole unfolding it in startling critical yet ultimately appreciative ways By comparing Innis's media scholarship with Wilbur Schramm's and Noam Chomsky's moreover Babe tests the claims positions and modes of analysis not only of Innis but also of the other two celebrated scholars as well casting new light on their works and allowing the reader to imagine what sort of discourses might have been possible had the three been in conversation together Wilbur Schramm and Noam Chomsky Meet Harold Innis provides comparative insight into foundational media scholarship in the United States and Canada and explores in some detail the relevance of Innis for twenty first century digitized society Harold Innis and the North William J. Buxton, 2013-06-01 Harold Innis is widely understood as the proponent of the Laurentian school of historiography which mapped Canadian development along an East West axis Harold Innis and the North turns the axis North South by examining Innis's intense and abiding interest in the North and providing new perspectives on this seminal figure in Canadian political economy and communication studies This collection reveals that Innis's advocacy of the North was closely bound up with his vision of northern Canada as the site of a second industrial revolution based on mining hydro electric power pulp and paper and enabled by new forms of transportation Long preoccupied with Canada's coming of age as a balanced and integrated industrial nation state Innis grappled with the same issues about the North in the Canadian nation that we are dealing with today Chapters explore the breadth of Innis's northern activities including his early studies of the fur trade his biography of eighteenth century explorer and cartographer Peter Pond his review essays on the North for the Canadian Historical Review his leadership of the Rockefeller sponsored Arctic Survey and his trip to the Soviet Union Harold Innis and the North crafts a new narrative about the nature and scope of Innis's intellectual project and provides a unique appreciation of his multifaceted professional identity Contributors include Sergei Arkhipov North Ossetian State University and NGO Vladikavkaz Institute of Economics Jeffrey Brison Queens George Colpitts Calgary Matthew Evenden UBC Barry Gough Churchill College Cambridge and Kings College London Paul Heyer Wilfrid Laurier Jim Mochoruk North Dakota Liza Piper Alberta Shirley Roburn Concordia Peter van Wyck Concordia Jeff Webb Memorial Harold Innis Paul Heyer, 2003 His name may not be as well known as that of his colleague and spiritual descendent Marshall McLuhan but Harold Innis's 1894-1952 influence on contemporary critical media and communication studies has been no less profound This concise look at Innis's life and contributions to the communication field charts his beginnings in political economy to his later work in critical media studies and communications history synthesizing his key publications and clearly showing their ongoing resonance for the field today The book also includes an appendix by William J Buxton on the History of Communications manuscript and one by J David Black on the contributions of Mary Quayle Innis Digital Academe William H. Dutton, Brian D. Loader, 2005-06-29 This book responds to an ever increasing call from educators policy makers journalists parents and the public at large for analysis that cuts through the hype surrounding the information revolution to address key issues associated with new media in higher education and learning This collection is of value to those who are seeking a critical non commercial exposition of both the enormous opportunities and challenges for higher education that are tied to the use of new information and communication technologies ICTs in the development of distance education and distributed learning The chapters are written by leading exponents practitioners and researchers from a variety of disciplinary perspectives and the collection as a whole spans national boundaries and reaches beyond the research community to relate to issues of policy and practice Trading Environments Gordon M. Winder, Andreas Dix, 2015-12-07 This volume examines dynamic interactions between the calculative and speculative practices of commerce and the fruitfulness variability materiality liveliness and risks of nature It does so in diverse environments caught up in new trading relationships forged on and through frontiers for agriculture forestry mining and fishing Historical resource frontiers are understood in terms of commercial knowledge systems organized as projects to transform landscapes and environments The book asks how were environments traded and with what environmental and landscape consequences How have environments been engineered standardized and transformed within past trading systems What have been the successes and failures of economic knowledge in dealing with resource production in complex environments It considers cases from northern Europe North and South America Central Africa and New Zealand in the period between 1750 and 1990 and the contributors reflect on the effects of transnational commodity chains competing economic knowledge systems environmental ignorance and learning and resource exploitation In each case they identify tensions blind spots and environmental learning that plagued commercial projects on frontiers Canadian
