Teaching And Learning In Tibet A Review Of Research And Policy Publications:

Teaching and Learning in Tibet Ellen Bangsbo, 2004 Comprises a literature review of research and policy publications related to basic and primary schooling and quality education in the Tibetan Autonomous Region TAR These have been collected from selected official Chinese sources Tibetan NGOs outside Tibet international news agencies and Chinese Tibetan and international scholars with knowledge of social and educational issues in China and Tibet The study is in two parts Part I a review of research and policy publications related to basic and primary education in Tibet China and Part II an annex with a list of literature websites and journals and other statistical information Proceedings of the Tenth Seminar of the IATS, 2003. Volume 11: Tibetan Modernities, 2008-05-31 This is the first major publication in the West to study modernity and its impact on contemporary Tibet Based on field work by researchers from the fields of anthropology sociology environmental science literature art and linguistics it presents essays on education economics childbirth environment caste pop music media and painting in Tibetan communities today The findings emerge from studies carried out in Ladakh Golok Lhasa Xining Shigatse and other areas of the Tibetan world It will provide important and sometimes surprising results for students of Tibet China Himalayan studies as well as an important contribution to our understandings of modernity and development in the modern world The Agendas of Tibetan Refugees Thomas Kauffmann, 2015-09-01 Since the arrival of the first Tibetans in exile in 1959 a vast and continuous wave of international especially Western support has permitted these refugees to survive and even to flourish in their temporary places of residence Today these Tibetan refugees continue to attract assistance from Western governments organizations and individuals while other refugee populations are largely forgotten in the international agenda This book shows and discusses how Tibetan refugees continue to attract resources due notably to the dissemination of their political and religious agendas as well as how a movement of Western supporters born in very different conditions guaranteed a unique relationship with these refugees Ethnic Conflict and Protest in Tibet and Xinjiang Ben Hillman, Gray Tuttle, 2016-04-05 Despite more than a decade of rapid economic development rising living standards and large scale improvements in infrastructure and services China's western borderlands are awash in a wave of ethnic unrest not seen since the 1950s Through on the ground interviews and firsthand observations the international experts in this volume create an invaluable record of the conflicts and protests as they have unfolded the most extensive chronicle of events to date The authors examine the factors driving the unrest in Tibet and Xinjiang and the political strategies used to suppress them They also explain why certain areas have seen higher concentrations of ethnic based violence than others Essential reading for anyone struggling to understand the origins of unrest in contemporary Tibet and Xinjiang this volume considers the role of propaganda and education as generators and sources of conflict It links interethnic strife to economic growth and connects environmental degradation to increased instability It captures the subtle difference between violence in urban Xinjiang and conflict in rural Tibet with detailed portraits of everyday individuals caught among the pressures of politics history personal interest and global movements with local resonance

Becoming Bilingual in School and Home in Tibetan Areas of China: Stories of Struggle YiXi LaMuCuo, 2019-07-09 This book contributes significantly to our understanding of bilingualism and bilingual education as a sociocultural and political process by offering analyses of the stories of five Tibetan individual journeys of becoming bilingual in the Tibetan areas of China at four different points in time from 1950 to the present The data presented comprises the narrative of their bilingual encounters including their experiences of using language in their families in village and in school Opportunities to develop bilingualism were intimately linked with historical and political events in the wider layers of experiences which reveal the complexity of bilingualism Moreover their experiences of developing bilingualism are the stories of struggle to become bilingual They struggle because they want to keep two languages in their lives It illustrates their relationship with society They are Tibetans L1 is not the official language of their country but it is the tie with their ethnicity It addresses bilingualism linked with the formation of identity The unique feature of this book is that it offers a deep understanding of bilingualism and bilingual education by examining the stories of five individuals learning experiences over a period of almost 60 years

Rewriting Shangri-La Heidi Swank, 2014-02-03 In Rewriting Shangri La Migrations and Everyday Literacies among Tibetan Youth in McLeod Ganj India Heidi Swank examines differing histories of migration and exile through the lens of everyday literacies The youth on whom this ethnography focuses live in a community that has long been romanticized by Tibetans and non Tibetans alike positioning these youth to see themselves as keepers of a modern day Shangri la Through this ethnography based on a decade of research Heidi Swank suggests that through seemingly mundane writings grocery lists text messages etc these youth are shifting what Shangri la means by renegotiating important aspects of life in this Tibetan community to better match their lived not romanticized experiences as exiles in rural India

State Growth and Social Exclusion in Tibet Andrew Martin Fischer, 2005 The most pressing economic challenges facing the Tibetan areas of western China relate to the marginalization of the majority of Tibetans from rapid state led growth The urban rural divide plays an important role in this polarized dynamic but alone only partially explains differences with other Chinese regions all of which generally exhibit strong spatial inequalities This book therefore focuses on several further factors that determine the ethnically exclusionary character of current peripheral growth in the Tibetan areas These include processes of urbanization immigration employment and education as key factors underlying structural economic change

The Battle for Fortune Charlene Makley, 2018-05-15 In a deeply ethnographic appraisal based on years of in situ research The Battle for Fortune looks at the rising stakes of Tibetans encounters with Chinese state led development projects in the early 2000s The book builds upon anthropology's qualitative approach to personhood power and space to rethink the premises and consequences of economic development campaigns in China's multiethnic northwestern province of Qinghai Charlene Makley considers Tibetans encounters with development projects as first and foremost a historically situated interpretive politics in which people negotiate the presence or absence of moral and authoritative persons and their associated jurisdictions and powers Because most Tibetans believe the active presence of deities and other invisible beings has been the ground of power causation and fertile or fortunate landscapes Makley also takes divine beings seriously refusing to relegate them to a separate less consequential religious or premodern world The Battle for Fortune therefore challenges readers to grasp the unique reality of Tibetans values and fears in the face of their marginalization in China Makley uses this approach to encourage a more multidimensional and dynamic understanding of state local relations than mainstream accounts of development and unrest that portray Tibet and China as a kind of yin and yang pair for models of statehood and development in a new global order

Democratising Indonesia Mikaela Nyman, 2006 The fall of Suharto has drawn much media and academic attention but the focus has been on the elite perspective the role of the regime and military and little has been published on civil society Gender issues are also often by passed Indonesia is at a crossroads and the greater involvement of civil society is being seriously considered for the first time by government representatives and demanded by civil society actors political think tanks and social commentators This study which covers the lead up to and ousting of Suharto up until the 2004 democratic elections analyses the role of civil society in Indonesia s transition towards democracy by applying social movement theory and the framework of political opportunities It shows the importance of social movements as civil society s primary catalysts for change and the need for a strong civil society to take over where the social movements left off in order to consolidate attitudinal changes in the political economic and social spheres The actions and limitations of various parts of the Indonesian pro democracy movement are discussed providing case studies of three groups of actors the student movement the women s movement and the labour movement focusing on times when they have joined forces to form social movements The shortcomings and successes of the pro democracy movement are discussed as are the prospects for civil society in the future
