Handbook of Research on Transforming Teachers' Online Pedagogical Reasoning for Engaging K-12 Students in Virtual Learning Niess, Margaret L., Gillow-Wiles, Henry, 2021-06-25 The COVID 19 pandemic drastically transformed the classroom by keeping students and teachers apart for the sake of safety As schools emptied remote learning rapidly expanded through online services and video chatrooms Unfortunately this disrupted many students and teachers who were not accustomed to remote classrooms This challenge has forced K 12 teachers to think differently about teaching Unexpectedly and with little time to prepare they have been confronted with redesigning their curriculum and instruction from face to face to online virtual classrooms to protect students from the COVID 19 virus while ensuring that these new online initiatives remain sustainable and useful in the post pandemic world As teachers learn to take advantage of the affordances and strengths of the multiple technologies available for virtual classroom instruction their instruction both in online and face to face will impact what and how students learn in the 21st century The Handbook of Research on Transforming Teachers Online Pedagogical Reasoning for Engaging K 12 Students in Virtual Learning examines the best practices and pedagogical reasoning for designing online strategies that work for K 12 virtual learning The initial section provides foundational pedagogical ideas for constructing engaging virtual learning environments that leverage the unique strengths and opportunities while avoiding the weaknesses and threats of the online world The following chapters present instructional strategies for multiple grade levels and content areas best practices that work clearly describing why they work and the teachers pedagogical reasoning that supports online implementations The chapters provide ways to think about teaching in virtual environments that can be used to guide instructional strategy choices and recognizes the fundamental differences between face to face and virtual environments as an essential design component Covering such topics as K 12 classrooms pedagogical reasoning and virtual learning this text is perfect for professors teachers students educational designers and developers instructional technology faculty distance learning faculty and researchers interested in the subject

Elements of Quality Online Education John R. Bourne, Janet C. Moore, 2004 In the ten years since the inception of the Sloan Consortium the field of online learning has entered the mainstream of higher education making online learning a core ingredient of tomorrow s educational paradigms Now that digital natives are coming of age the blending of on ground and online education is continuous and unstoppable Growing demands for wide choice suggest that the blended agenda presses us rapidly into new realms of inquiry Thus the title of this collection the fifth volume in the Sloan C series on quality is Elements of Quality Online Education Into the Mainstream The 14 peer reviewed studies in this volume provide guidance for effectively responding to the challenges facing higher education The studies on Student Satisfaction recognize that significant populations remain underserved Yet asynchronous learning networks ALNs are widening access by easing some of the constraints of place based synchronous learning so that many more and many more new kinds of learners can achieve satisfaction and success The studies on Learning Effectiveness share an emphasis on the ways that ALN exceeds the no significant difference minimum standard for learning outcomes The studies on blending combining face to face and online methods for learning offer rich possibilities for what many see as the best of both learning modes The studies on assessment go to the core of the Sloan C quality framework and its emphasis on continuous quality improvement through demonstrating progress towards the overarching goal of affordable access for all in a wide range of disciplines In our time of profound rapid and discontinuous change these studies envision solutions to the challenges of online blended and face to face education in higher education Sponsored by the Alfred P Sloan Foundation the purpose of the Sloan Consortium Sloan C is to help learning organizations continually improve quality scale and breadth according to their own distinctive missions so that
