Houshower, 1963 Speech Communication Activities, K-12 Ellen M. Ritter, 1979 Research in Education, 1971 International Handbook of English Language Teaching Jim Cummins, Chris Davison, 2007-12-31 This two volume handbook provides a comprehensive examination of policy practice research and theory related to English language teaching ELT in international contexts Nearly 70 chapters highlight the research foundation for the best practices frameworks for policy decisions and areas of consensus and controversy in the teaching and development of English as a second and or additional language for kindergarten through to adult speakers of languages other than English In doing so it problematizes traditional dichotomies and challenges the very terms that provide the traditional foundations of the field A wide range of terms has been used to refer to the key players involved in the teaching and learning of the English language and to the enterprise of English language teaching as a whole At various times and in different contexts the following labels have been used in countries where English is the dominant language to describe programs learners or teachers of English English as a second language ESL English as an additional language EAL limited English proficient LEP and English language learners ELL In contexts where English is not the dominant language the following terms have been used English as a foreign language EFL English as an international language EIL and English as a lingua franca ELF Comparative Studies in Special Education Kas Mazurek, Margaret A. Winzer, 1994 This unequalled all encompassing collection of international programs on special education will enable educators worldwide to investigate special education practice within its social context to enhance their own initiatives with new ideas Comparative Studies divides into five sections each with an introduction to the chapters within This thorough text begins with limited special education in such venues as South Africa and Senegal Section Two addresses emerging special education in Nigeria Brazil and several other locales Segregated special education in Japan Russia and other countries makes up Section Three and Section Four explores countries that are approaching integration such as Poland and Australia Integrated special education is described in Scandinavia New Zealand and other nations in the final section More than 50 noted scholars have contributed to this important work offering every involved student and practitioner an indispensable detailed frame of reference in which to assess education programs worldwide for all special populations blind deaf physically and mentally disabled and all others

Speech in the Elementary School Mardel Ogilvie, 1954 The author states that the three purposes of the book are to suggest ways to promote effective communication in the elementary school classroom to indicate the speaking activities that are part of the language arts program and to note the part the classroom teacher plays in improving the child's speech Many speech activities are suggested but the important place of poetry is stressed Poetry is far too frequently omitted from classroom activities partially because of teachers lack of security in handling it with children the author s treatment of this subject should help to bolster the confidence of young teachers and encourage them in the use of poetry A chart lists the aims of speech education and information about the growth of children in language and should be a helpful guide A practical book with many examples of actual classroom experiences and school activities of children s problems related to speech and of faulty co operation in dealing with such problems The major responsibility of course for speech training in the school lies with the classroom teacher
