

Teaching Purpose in Writing (Music-Themed Unit)

Writing to Express an Opinion (Informal)

When you are writing to express an opinion in an informal manner, you are simply sharing your subjective thoughts/feelings about a topic—you don't really need to rely on facts to support your ideas. You do not need to try and convince your audience that your opinion is correct—you are just stating your personal preferences. When you are sharing your opinion in an informal manner, you can use phrases such as, "I think," "I believe," or "In my opinion..."

Writing to Express an Opinion—Create a Playlist

For this assignment, you will create a playlist of at least 6 of your favorite songs using a specific category. For each song, you will explain why you personally believe that it should be on the list. You are writing to express your opinion—the category and songs that you select are up to you, but you need to justify your choices. Provide specific, detailed reasons why each song needs to be included on the list.

First, choose a mood, situation, or activity that you want to focus on. Some possibilities include:

- Moods—happy, sad, angry, stressed, reflective, calm, etc.
- Activities—having fun with friends, exercising, focusing (studying, etc.), driving, etc.
- Category—best songs from a particular group, songs with the best guitar solos, songs with clever lyrics, songs from a specific time period/important time in your life, etc.
- Other: check with me first.

Your selected category: _____

Song #1 (include title & artist): _____

Why you selected this song:
