Teaching Concepts:

Teaching Concepts M. David Merrill, Robert D. Tennyson, Larry O. Posey, 1992 Concept Cat: Teaching Concepts in the Early Years Anna Branagan, Stephen Parsons, 2025-05-30 Conceptual vocabulary shapes children's thinking in the Early Years and forms the foundation for later mathematical and scientific learning However these words are abstract and often tricky to learn and to teach Concept Cat is a tried and tested evidence based approach that supports all young children's learning of conceptual vocabulary Vocabulary is taught in a structured and engaging manner with explicit teaching of vocabulary followed by implicit teaching in play based learning The resource provides A step by step guide to teaching 150 different concepts using songs stories and play based activities A whole class approach which is accessible for a wide range of children including those with limited language Guidance and resources for working with families to effectively support children's learning Accompanying downloadable resources including printable symbols of each concept for immediate use in the classroom Concept Cat is a complete guide to implementing this approach and an essential resource for Early Years educators primary teachers and speech and language therapists All you need is a cat toy to get you started Concept

Attainment Model in Mathematics Teaching K. S. Prabhakaram, 1998 Mathematics is one of the core subjects in school education The need to make mathematics teaching interesting and effective is therefore felt all around Concept Attainment Model is considered to be effective in teaching mathematical concepts So a research study to evaluate the effectiveness of CAM in maths teaching has been undertaken As the utilisation of innovative teaching approaches help the students a lot it is always better to apply the techniques like CAM wherever and whenever there is a possibility The teachers and researchers will get a great advantage with this book Changing Concepts in the Teaching of History Ruth Isabella Higley, 1928

Principles and Strategies of Teaching 2000 Ed. , 2000 Web 2.0 Tools in Concept Teaching Zeynep Tatlı, Ali Şükrü Özbay, 2021-11-30 Currently students are interested in more than one thing at the same time preferring to use visuals and infographics rather than writing in the learning process In addition these students use technology better in the education process as in all aspects of daily life as they meet technology at an earlier age than their teachers Therefore teachers should also update themselves according to these learner characteristics In particular assessment and evaluation are two of the topics that students may not enjoy to their fullest extent This book serves to make the assessment process fun and interactive as well as to inform teachers about the different applications they can do in this process It invites teachers to introduce highly interactive applications and make their classes active in the learning process Guidelines and Games for
