Teaching Special Students In The Mainstream:

Teaching Special Students in the Mainstream Rena B. Lewis, Donald H. Doorlag, 1995 Mainstream Or Special? Josephine C. Jenkinson, 1997 There remains some controversy about how best to meet the needs of pupils with special educational needs Should they be educated in mainstream schools alongside their peers or does this mean that specialist help and resources are denied to them This book explores in depth the ways in which this problem has been tackled in Australia the UK and Canada It looks at the major issues which have been raised and the types of provisions and resourcing which have been offered and then goes on to provide a vision of how future education provision might look for pupils with special educational needs Teaching Special Students in the Mainstream Rena B. Lewis, Donald H. Doorlag, 1983

Inclusive Education at Work Students with Disabilities in Mainstream Schools OECD, 2000-02-02 Based on in depth analysis of inclusive practice in eight countries this book addresses the issues that arise when students with disabilities are educated in local schools The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology and Behavioral Science, Volume 1 W. Edward Craighead, Charles B. Nemeroff, 2001 Encyclopedia The Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator's Handbook Garry Hornby, Gregan Davis, Geoff Taylor, 2013-11-05 In September 1994 the Code of Practice on the Identification and Assessment of Special Educational Needs came into force and with it a major increase in the expectations placed on teachers in mainstream schools in particular on the SEN coordinators This handbook discusses the implications for schools and gives practical guidance on how to implement the code effectively Throughout the book provides Further information expanding upon that given in the Code Examples Ideas for dealing with SEN in schools Checklists Proformas for photocopying and direct use in schools The book begins by explaining and expanding on the Code of Practice setting it in the context of recent developments including the Education Reform Act and OFSTED criteria for evaluating policy and provision for children in SEN It then goes on to provide guidelines for implementing the Code of Practice at each of the five stages which it specifies and discusses issues which are raised by this Specific chapters cover Identifying and assessing SEN within the school Liaison with outside specialists Statementing Annual reviews Knowledge needed by classroom teachers of children with SEN Implications and issues at different stages of the education system Parental involvement Future challenges The book will be of particular interest to special needs coordinators but will also be of value to anyone else working with children with SEN including class teachers heads advisers governors educational psychologists and education welfare officers The Making of the Inclusive School Gary Thomas, David Walker, Julie Webb, 2006-04-19 Inclusion is a buzzword of the 1990s Politicians now stress their commitment to inclusion and social justice not competition For schools inclusion means accepting and educating all children irrespective of their difficulties The new inclusive mood is about including everyone in society s institutions It has created a growing demand for schools to find effective ways of including and teaching all children even those who at one time would have been sent to special schools The book combines a theoretical examination of inclusion and its rationale with the story of a group of schools in which teachers assistants and children have striven to make inclusion happen This new book explores the arguments for inclusive schools examines the international evidence about children s well being and academic progress in inclusive schools describes how the pioneers have developed their practice for inclusion presents the findings of an in depth 18 month study of a group of schools which have striven to make inclusion happen
