Teaching The Representation Of The Holocaust:

Teaching the Representation of the Holocaust Marianne Hirsch, Irene Kacandes, 2004 Can the story be told Jorge Semprun asked after his liberation from Buchenwald The question is addressed from many angles in this volume of essays on teaching about the Holocaust In their introduction Marianne Hirsch and Irene Kacandes argue that Semprun's question is as vital now and as difficult and complex as it was for the survivors in 1945 The thirty eight contributors to Teaching the Representation of the Holocaust come from various disciplines history literary criticism psychology film studies and address a wide range of issues pertinent to the teaching of a subject that many teachers and students feel is an essential part of a liberal arts education This volume offers approaches to such works as Jurek Becker's Jacob the Liar Roberto Benigni's Life Is Beautiful Anne Frank's diary Daniel Jonah Goldhagen's Hitler's Willing Executioners Claude Lanzmann's Shoah Primo Levi's Survival in Auschwitz Cynthia Ozick's The Shawl Dan Pagis's Written in Pencil in the Sealed Railway Car Art Spiegelman's Maus Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List Elie Wiesel's Night and Abraham Yehoshua's Mr Mani To the challenge How do we transmit so hurtful an image of our own species without killing hope and breeding indifference posed by Geoffrey Hartman in this volume the editors respond Only in the very human context of classroom interaction can we hope to avoid either false redemption or unending despair

Rachael McLennan, 2016-08-05 This book explores portrayals of Anne Frank in American literature where she is often invoked if problematically as a means of encouraging readers to think widely about persecution genocide and victimisation often in relation to gender ethnicity and race It shows how literary representations of Anne Frank in America over the past 50 years reflect the continued dominance of the American dramatic adaptations of Frank's Diary in the 1950s and argues that authors feel compelled to engage with the problematic elements of these adaptations and their iconic power At the same time though literary representations of Frank are associated with the adaptations critics often assume that these texts unquestioningly perpetuate the problems with the adaptations This is not true This book examines how American authors represent Frank in order to negotiate difficult questions relating to representation of the Holocaust in America and in order to consider gender coming of age and forms of inequality in American culture in various historical moments and of course to consider the ways Frank herself is represented in America This book argues that the most compelling representations of Frank in American literature are alert to their own limitations and may caution against making Frank a universal symbol of goodness or setting up too easy identifications with her It will be of great interest to researchers and students of Frank the Holocaust in American fiction and culture gender studies life writing young adult fiction and ethics The Holocaust in the Central European Literatures and Cultures since 1989 Reinhard Ibler, 2014-09-01 Holocaust Memory and Youth

Performance Erika Hughes, 2024-01-25 Through an examination of children's and youth plays and performances about the Holocaust from Germany Israel and the United States this book offers an entirely new way of looking at the vital role of youth performance in coping with the legacy of historical tragedy As the first book length critical examination of this subject

Holocaust Memory and Youth Performance considers plays that are produced by major theatre companies alongside performances written by young authors and pieces taken from the diaries and memoirs of those who experienced the Holocaust as children or adolescents While youth focused plays about the Holocaust have been in the repertoires of top professional companies throughout the world for decades and continue to be performed in theatres schools and community centers they are often neglected in concentrated and comparative studies of Holocaust theatre Erika Hughes fills this gap by examining plays including The Diary of Anne Frank and Ab heute hei t Du Sara musicals performances scripts a rock concert a performance on Instagram and pedagogically focused works of applied theatre a diverse collection of performances for young audiences that tell the stories of young people who experienced the Holocaust Adopting Hannah Arendt s notion of natality as a powerful framework this study examines the ways in which youth theatre performances make a vital contribution to intergenerational witnessing and the collective memory of the Holocaust
