for example the possibility of national revival and political leadership as a form of salvation The volume also examines the qualities of religious discourse and practice that can be used for nationalist purposes paying special attention to how religion can help to give meaning to sacrifice in national struggle The book's comparative approach underscores that developments in colonizing and colonized countries too often considered separately are subtly interrelated In addition to the editors the contributors are Benedict R Anderson Talal Asad Susan Bayly Partha Chatterjee Frans Groot Harry Harootunian Hugh McLeod Barbara Metcalf and Peter van Rooden The Muslims of America Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, 1991 Papers presented at a conference held on the Amherst campus of the University of Massachusetts April 1989 and sponsored by the Dept of History the Near East Area Studies Program and the Arabic Club of the university The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World John L. Barbara Daly Metcalf,2004 The essays in this volume written over the course of the last quarter century are intended to contribute to understanding the role that Islamic symbols and identities have come to play in Northern India and since 1947 in Pakistan Above all these essays offer a challenge to current negative stereotypes of the Muslim faith demonstrating that the religion is not characterised by political militancy nor dominated by static traditionalism The Princeton Encyclopedia of Islamic Political Thought Gerhard Bowering,Patricia Crone,Mahan Mirza,2013 In 2012 the year 1433 of the Muslim calendar the Islamic population throughout the world was estimated at approximately a billion and a half representing about one fifth of humanity In geographical terms Islam occupies the center of the world stretching like a big belt across the globe from east to west P vii The Teachings of Islam Muḥammad Zakariyyā,1981 Al-Furqan's English Digest ,1974

Islam in South Asia in Practice Barbara D. Metcalf,2009-09-08 This volume of Princeton Readings in Religions brings together the work of more than thirty scholars of Islam and Muslim societies in South Asia to create a rich anthology of primary texts that contributes to a new appreciation of the lived religious and cultural experiences of the world s largest population of Muslims The thirty four selections translated from Arabic Persian Urdu Bengali Tamil Gujarati Hindavi Dakhani and other languages highlight a wide variety of genres many rarely found in standard accounts of Islamic practice from oral narratives to elite guidance manuals from devotional songs to secular judicial decisions arbitrating Islamic law and from political posters to a discussion among college women affiliated with an Islamist organization Drawn from premodern texts modern pamphlets government and organizational archives new media and contemporary fieldwork the selections reflect the rich diversity of Islamic belief and practice in South Asia Each reading is introduced with a brief contextual note from its scholar translator and Barbara Metcalf introduces the whole volume with a substantial historical overview Encyclopedia of Islam and the Muslim World Richard C. Martin, 2004 Review This two volume set on Islam is a timely resource aimed at the general reader More than 500 articles 200 5 000 words in length describe the Islamic world from its known beginnings to the present day A Synoptic Outline of Entries at the beginning of volume one presents a thematic overview of the encyclopedia that facilitates browsing A glossary of terms and a pronunciation key appear at the end of volume two followed by genealogies timelines and a detailed index Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Appropriating Gender Patricia Jeffery, 1998 Appropriating Gender explores the paradoxical relationship of women to religious politics in India Pakistan Sri Lanka and Bangladesh Contrary to the hopes of feminists many women have responded to religious nationalist appeals contrary to the hopes of religious nationalists they have also asserted their gender class caste and religious identities contrary to the hopes of nation states they have often challenged state policies and practices Through a comparative South Asia perspective Appropriating Gender explores the varied meanings and expressions of gender identity through time by location and according to political context The first work to focus on women s agency and activism within the South Asian context Appropriating Gender is an outstanding contribution to the field of gender studies Islamic Britain Philip Lewis, 2002-03-29 From the 1980s Britain s large Muslim community a long established but little noticed group suddenly became visible as controversies involving the education and dress of Muslim schoolgirls the Rushdie affair and the Gulf War excited huge media interest Caricatures and misconceptions began to spread and with political Islam on the march in many Middle Eastern countries fears of British Muslims becoming a bridgehead in the West for the establishment of an Islamic theocracy began to loom in the popular imagination How do British Muslims really think about themselves about their religion and their politics What dilemmas do they face as they give up the myth of return that sustained first generation immigrants and struggle to define a British Islam In this important book the first major study of British Muslims Philip Lewis deals with the reality behind distorted media images through a rich first hand account of the Muslim community in Bradford the city which became the epicentre of British Muslim anger and resistance to The Satanic Verses The Ulama in Contemporary Islam Muhammad Qasim Zaman, 2010-12-16 From the cleric led Iranian revolution to the rise of the Taliban in Afghanistan many people have been surprised by what they see as the modern reemergence of an antimodern phenomenon This book helps account for the increasingly visible public role of traditionally educated Muslim religious scholars the ulama across contemporary Muslim societies Muhammad Qasim Zaman describes the transformations the centuries old culture and tradition of the ulama have undergone in the modern era transformations that underlie the new religious and political activism of these scholars In doing so it provides a new foundation for the comparative study of Islam politics and religious change in the contemporary world While focusing primarily on Pakistan Zaman takes a broad approach that considers the Taliban and the ulama of Iran Egypt Saudi Arabia India and the southern Philippines He shows how their religious and political discourses have evolved in often unexpected but mutually reinforcing ways to redefine and enlarge the roles the ulama play in society Their discourses are informed by a longstanding religious tradition of which they see themselves as the custodians But these discourses are equally shaped by and contribute in significant ways to contemporary debates in the Muslim public sphere This book offers the first sustained comparative perspective on the ulama and their increasingly crucial religious and political activism It shows how issues of religious authority are debated in contemporary Islam how Islamic law and tradition are continuously negotiated in a rapidly changing world and how the ulama both react to and shape larger Islamic social trends Introducing previously unexamined facets of religious and political thought in modern Islam it clarifies the complex processes of religious change unfolding in the contemporary Muslim world and goes a long way toward explaining their vast social and political ramifications
