Tech Assassins No 1:

›Assassin's Creed‹ in the Classroom Erik Champion, Juan Francisco Hiriart Vera, 2023-12-18 The open world role playing Assassin's Creed video game series is one of the most successful series of all time praised for its in depth use of historical characters and events compelling graphics and addictive gameplay Assassin's Creed games offer up the possibility of exploring history mythology and heritage immersively graphically and imaginatively This collection of essays by architects archaeologists and historians explores the learning opportunities of playing modifying and extending the games in the classroom on location in the architectural studio and in a museum Technologies of the Gendered Body Anne Marie Balsamo, 1996 This book looks at the representation of the body in culture from a feminist perspective Subjects covered include bodybuilding cosmetic surgery and cyberculture Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1957 Innovate to Dominate Tai Ming Cheung, 2022-08-15 In Innovate to Dominate Tai Ming Cheung offers insight into why how and whether China will overtake the United States to become the world's preeminent technological and security power This examination of the means and ends of China's quest for techno security supremacy is required reading for anyone looking for clues as to the long term direction of the global order The techno security domain Cheung argues is where national security innovation and economic development converge and it has become the center of power and prosperity in the twenty first century China's paramount leader Xi Jinping recognizes that effectively harnessing the complex interactions among security innovation and development is essential in enabling China to compete for global dominance Cheung offers a richly detailed account of how China is building a potent techno security state In Innovate to Dominate he takes readers from the strategic vision guiding this transformation to the nuts and bolts of policy implementation The state led top down mobilizational model that China is pursuing has been a winning formula so far but the sternest test is ahead as China begins to compete head to head with the United States and aims to surpass its archrival by mid century if not sooner Innovate to Dominate is a timely and analytically rigorous examination of the key strategies guiding China's transformation of its capabilities in the national technological military and security spheres and how this is taking place Cheung authoritatively addresses the burning questions being asked in capitals around the world Can China become the dominant global techno security power And if so when Narrative and Technology Ethics Wessel Reijers, Mark Coeckelbergh, 2020-12-07 This book proposes that technologies similar to texts novels and movies tell stories and thereby configure our lifeworld in the Digital Age The impact of technologies on our lived experience is ever increasing innovations in robotics challenge the nature of work emerging biotechnologies impact our sense of self and blockchain based smart contracts profoundly transform interpersonal relations In their exploration of the significance of these technologies Reijers and Coeckelbergh build on the philosophical hermeneutics of Paul Ricoeur to construct a new narrative approach to the philosophy and ethics of technology The authors take the reader on a journey from a discussion of the philosophy of praxis via a hermeneutic notion of technical practice that draws on MacIntyre Heidegger and Ricoeur through the virtue ethics of Vallor and Ricoeur's ethical aim to the eventual construction of a practice method which can guide ethics in research and innovation In its creation of a compelling hermeneutic ethics of technology the book offers a concrete framework for practitioners to incorporate ethics in everyday technical practice

Administrative Ethics and Executive Decisions

Chad B. Newswander, 2017-10-02 As first responders to public problems administrators must survey situations identify solutions and occasionally make executive decisions that are binding upon the government as a whole The ability for administrators to assert claims that orient the government in a particular direction is not only powerful but it can also be problematic and even dangerous For administrators the tension between moving in a spirited way and remaining sensible is a problem of how to exercise one's discretion especially in the US context which demands that both be considered and actualized In dealing with these competing expectations Chad B Newswander analyzes how administrators can incorporate executive legislative and judicial tendencies to help them handle the problem of discretion Expanding the thinking of the constitutional school of public administration thought Administrative Ethics and Executive Decisions is a theoretically grounded and empirically rich study of how administrators incorporate a constitutional ethos to handle the problem of discretion

The War Lawyers Craig Jones, 2020 Over the last 20 years the world's most advanced militaries have invited a small number of military legal professionals into the heart of their targeting operations spaces which had previously been exclusively for generals and commanders These professionals trained and hired to give legal advice on an array of military operations have become known as war lawyers The War Lawyers examines the laws of war as applied by military lawyers to aerial targeting operations carried out by the US military in Iraq and Afghanistan and the Israel military in Gaza Drawing on interviews with military lawyers and others this book explains why some lawyers became integrated in the chain of command whereby military targets are identified and attacked whether by manned aircraft drones and or ground forces and with what results This book shows just how important law and military lawyers have become in the conduct of contemporary warfare and how it is understood Jones argues that circulations of law and policy between the US and Israel have bolstered targeting practices considered legally questionable contending that the involvement of war lawyers in targeting operations enables legitimises and sometimes even extends military violence

Life in the Age of Drone Warfare Lisa Parks, Caren

Kaplan, 2017-10-19 This volume's contributors offer a new critical language through which to explore and assess the historical juridical geopolitical and cultural dimensions of drone technology and warfare They show how drones generate particular ways of visualizing the spaces and targets of war while acting as tools to exercise state power Essays include discussions of the legal justifications of extrajudicial killings and how US drone strikes in the Horn of Africa impact life on the ground as well as a personal narrative of a former drone operator The contributors also explore drone warfare in relation to sovereignty governance and social difference provide accounts of the relationships between drone technologies and modes of perception and mediation and theorize drones relation to biopolitics robotics automation and art Interdisciplinary and timely Life in the Age of Drone Warfare extends the critical study of drones while expanding the public discussion of one of our era s most ubiquitous instruments of war Contributors Peter Asaro Brandon Wayne Bryant Katherine Chandler Jordan Crandall Ricardo Dominguez Derek Gregory Inderpal Grewal Lisa Hajjar Caren Kaplan Andrea Miller Anjali Nath Jeremy Packer Lisa Parks Joshua Reeves Thomas Stubblefield Madiha Tahir

Playing the Middle Ages Robert Houghton,2023-08-24 The Middle Ages have provided rich source material for physical and digital games from Dungeons and Dragons to Assassin s Creed This volume addresses the many ways in which different formats and genre of games represent the period It considers the restrictions placed on these representations by the mechanical and gameplay requirements of the medium and by audience expectations of these products and the period highlighting innovative attempts to overcome these limitations through game design and play Playing the Middle Ages considers a number of important and timely issues within the field including one the connection between medieval games and political nationalistic rhetoric two trends in the presentation of religion warfare and other aspects of medieval society and their connection to modern culture three the problematic representations of race and four the place of gender and sexuality within these games and the broader gaming community The book draws on the experience of a wide ranging and international group of academics across disciplines and from games designers Through this combination of expertise it provides a unique perspective on the representation of the Middle Ages in modern games and drives key discussions in the fields of history and game design

Contesting Islam, Constructing Race and Sexuality Sunera Thobani,2020-12-10 The current political standoffs of the War on Terror illustrate that the interaction within and between the so called Western and Middle Eastern civilizations is constantly in flux A recurring theme however is how Islam and Muslims signify the Enemy in the Western socio cultural imagination and have become the Other against which the West identifies itself In a unique and insightful blend of critical race feminist and post colonial theory Sunera Thobani examines how Islam is foundational to the formation of Western identity at critical points in its history including the Crusades the Reconquista and the colonial period More specifically she explores how masculinity and femininity are formed at such pivotal junctures and what role feminism has played in the wars against radical Islam Exposing these symbiotic relationships Thobani explores how the return of religion is reworking the racial gender and sexual politics by which Western society defines itself and more specifically defines itself against Islam Contesting Islam Constructing Race and Sexuality unpacks conventional as well as unconventional orthodoxies to open up new spaces in how we think about sexual and racial identity in the West and the crucial role that Islam has had and continues to have in its development
