Technique And Technology Script Print And Poetics In France 1470 1550:

Technique and Technology Adrian Armstrong, 2000 Technique and Technology Adrian Armstrong, 2000 Literary studies cannot neglect the study of books the physical objects through which literary texts are transmitted Book form is especially relevant to the literature of the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries which saw the crucial shift from manuscript to print in Western Europe This book examines manuscripts and printed editions of three major French writers of this key period Jean Molinet Jean Lemaire de Belges and Jean Bouchet Presentational features which influence the reading of poems such as layout illustration anthologization and paratext are analysed The development of these features reflects a gradual change in the ways in which literary self consciousness is manifested In earlier texts produced within an essentially manuscript culture poets creative investment in their work is exhibited primarily as formal virtuosity As printing becomes dominant such virtuosity tends to be rejected in favour of self commentary and an apparently more personal discourse

Book and Text in France, 1400-1600 Malcolm Quainton, 2016-12-05 In recent years literary scholars have come increasingly to acknowledge that an adequate understanding of texts requires the study of books the material objects through which the meanings of texts are constructed Focusing on French poetry in the period 1400 1600 contributors to this volume analyze layout illustration graphology paratext typography anthologization and other such elements in works by a variety of writers among them Charles d Orl ans Jean Bouchet Pierre de Ronsard and Louise Lab They demonstrate how those elements play a crucial role in shaping the relationships between authors texts contexts and readers and how these relationships change as the nature of the book evolves An introduction to the volume outlines the methodological implications of studying the materiality of literature in this period situates the various papers in relation to each other and to the field as a whole and indicates possible future directions of research in the field By engaging with issues of major current methodological concern this volume appeals to all scholars interested in the materiality of the literary text including the burgeoning field of text image studies not only in French but also in other national literatures In addition it enables fruitful connections to be made between late medieval and Renaissance literature areas still often studied in isolation from each other

The Cambridge Companion to Medieval French Literature Simon Gaunt, Sarah Kay, 2008-04-10 Medieval French literature encompasses 450 years of literary output in Old and Middle French mostly produced in Northern France and England These texts including courtly lyrics prose and verse romances dits amoureux and plays proved hugely influential for other European literary traditions in the medieval period and beyond This Companion offers a wide ranging and stimulating guide to literature composed in medieval French from its beginnings in the ninth century until the Renaissance The essays are grounded in detailed analysis of canonical texts and authors such as the Chanson de Roland the Roman de la Rose Villon s Testament Chr tien de Troyes Machaut Christine de Pisan and the Tristan romances Featuring a chronology and suggestions for further reading this is the ideal companion for students and scholars in other fields wishing to discover the riches of the French medieval tradition Writing War in Britain and France, 1370-1854 Stephanie Downes, Andrew Lynch, Katrina O'Loughlin, 2018-10-03 Writing War in Britain and France 1370 1854 A History of Emotions brings together leading scholars in medieval early modern eighteenth century and Romantic studies The assembled essays trace continuities and changes in the emotional register of war as it has been mediated by the written record over six centuries Through its wide selection of sites of utterance genres of writing and contexts of publication and reception Writing War in Britain and France 1370 1854 analyses the emotional history of war in relation to both the changing nature of conflicts and the changing creative modes in which they have been arrayed and experienced Each chapter explores how different forms of writing defines war whether as political violence civilian suffering or a theatre of heroism or barbarism giving war shape and meaning often retrospectively The volume is especially interested in how the written production of war as emotional experience occurs within a wider historical range of cultural and social practices Writing War in Britain and France 1370 1854 A History of Emotions will be of interest to students of the history of emotions the history of pre modern war and war literature Advertising the Self in Renaissance France Scott Francis, 2019-04-10 Advertising the Self in Renaissance France explores how authors and readers are represented in printed editions of three major literary figures Jean Lemaire de Belges Clément Marot and François Rabelais Print culture is marked by an anxiety of reception that became much more pronounced with increasingly anonymous and unpredictable readerships in the sixteenth century To allay this anxiety authors as well as editors and printers turned to self fashioning in order to sell not only their books but also particular ways of reading They advertised correct modes of reading as transformative experiences offered by selfless authors that would help the actual reader attain the image of the ideal reader held up by the text and paratext Thus authorial personae were constructed around the self fashioning offered to readers creating an interdependent relationship that anticipated modern advertising Distributed for the University of Delaware Press The Poetry of François Villon Jane H. M. Taylor, 2001-05-21 Taylor explores the work of François Villon and his relationship to his predecessors and contemporaries Authority and Diplomacy from Dante to Shakespeare Jason Powell, William T. Rossiter, 2016-04-08 A detailed examination of the relationship between the discourses and practices of authority and diplomacy in the late medieval and early modern periods Authority and Diplomacy from Dante to Shakespeare interrogates the persistent duality of the roles of author and ambassador The volume approaches its subject from a literary historical perspective drawing upon late medieval and early modern ideas and discourses of diplomacy and authority and examining how they are manifested within different forms of writing drama poetry diplomatic correspondence peace treaties and household accounts Contributors focus on major literary figures from different cultures including Dante Petrarch and Tasso from Italy and from England Chaucer Wyatt Sidney Spenser and Shakespeare In addition the book moves between and across literary historical periods tracing the development of concepts and discourses of authority and diplomacy from the late medieval to the early modern period Taken together these essays forge a broader argument for the centrality of diplomacy and diplomatic concepts in the literature and culture of late medieval and early modern England and for the importance of diplomacy in current studies of English literature before 1603

Divine Art, Infernal Machine Elizabeth L. Eisenstein, 2011 Annotation Divine Art Infernal Machine presents a history of the printing press of the ambivalent attitudes of the public toward printers printing since the days of Gutenberg his business partner Johann Fust a gentleman often tellingly confused with the notorious Doctor Faustus

A Century of British Medieval Studies Alan Deyermond, 2007-11-29 This is an authoritative guide to the full range of medieval scholarship undertaken in twentieth century Britain history archaeology language culture Some of the twenty nine essays focus on changes in research method or on the achievements of individual scholars others are personal accounts of a lifetime's work
