The Harvesting A First Collection Of Poems:

The Harvesting Susan G. Smith (M.B.A.),1986 The First Book Jesse Zuba,2025-07-15 An illuminating look at the poetic debut in twentieth century American literary culture We have many poets of the First Book the poet and critic Louis Simpson remarked in 1957 describing a sense that the debut poetry collection not only launched the contemporary poetic career but also had come to define it Surveying American poetry over the past hundred years The First Book explores the emergence of the poetic debut as a unique literary production with its own tradition conventions and dynamic role in the literary market Through new readings of poets ranging from Wallace Stevens and Marianne Moore to John Ashbery and Louise Glück Jesse Zuba illuminates the importance of the first book in twentieth century American literary culture which involved complex struggles for legitimacy on the part of poets critics and publishers alike Zuba investigates poets diverse responses to the question of how to launch a career in an increasingly professionalized literary scene that threatened the authenticity of the poetic calling He shows how modernist debuts evoke markedly idiosyncratic paths while postwar first books evoke trajectories that balance professional imperatives with traditional literary ideals Debut titles ranging from Simpson's The Arrivistes to Ken Chen's Juvenilia stress the strikingly pervasive theme of beginning accommodating a new demand for career development even as it distances the poets from that demand Combining literary analysis with cultural history The First Book will interest scholars and students of twentieth century literature as well as readers and writers of poetry The Elementary English Review ,1927 Elementary English Review ,1928 SCC library has 1949 cur The Atonement, a Sacred Poem ... are used and varied in performance by individual poets and in relationship to language Works of the British Poets, from Chaucer to Morris, with Biographical Sketches Rossiter Johnson, 2025-10-19 Reprint of the original first published in 1876
