Hand-Made Television R. Moseley, 2016-04-29 Hand Made Television explores the ongoing enchantment of many of the much loved stop frame children's television programmes of 1960s and 1970s Britain The first academic work to analyse programmes such as Pogles Wood 1966 Clangers 1969 Bagpuss 1974 Smallfilms and Gordon Murray's Camberwick Green 1966 Trumpton 1967 and Chigley 1969 the book connects these series to their social and historical contexts while providing in depth analyses of their themes and hand made aesthetics Hand Made Television shows that the appeal of these programmes is rooted not only in their participatory address and evocation of a pastoral English past but also in the connection of their stop frame aesthetics to the actions of childhood play This book makes a significant contribution to both Animation Studies and Television Studies combining scholarly rigour with an accessible style it is suitable for scholars as well as fans of these iconic British children's programmes

And there's no shortage of suspects, including the local bishop. As Tom and Phil try to uncover the truth, they're pulled in all directions by the conflicting pressures of their families and their own desires. But the murderer they're up against is a ruthless schemer who won't balk at killing again. If Tom and Phil don't watch out, their love and all their plans for the future could be blown down like a house of straw. The Grief Survival Guide Jeff Brazier, 2017-06-01 Jeff Brazier has experienced bereavement in many forms. In his childhood, helping his two boys through the devastating death of their mother, Jade Goody, witnessing the anguish of his own mum when she lost both of her parents, and hearing the stories of his coaching clients who are coming to terms with loss. No one can be an expert on grief, but within this book, Jeff provides support and guidance from someone who has been there. Accessible and hands-on, The Grief Survival Guide offers practical advice on everything from preparing for the eventuality of death, managing grief, how best to support family and friends, and moving forward. There is no one-size-fits-all approach, so instead, Jeff teaches us that the best we can do is understand, cope, and survive. How to Handle Your Friends Roy Aps, 2000 Each character in this guide is named after the type of food they eat. The Cucumber friend is the one who's just too cool for their own good, and the Big Whopper enemy tells tall tales to get you into trouble. Souperman arrives on the scene and shows how to put each of these characters in their place.

Where Did It All Go Right? Andrew Collins, 2008-09-04 Andrew Collins was born 37 years ago in Northampton. His parents never split up; in fact, they rarely exchanged a cross word. No one abused him. Nobody died. He got on well with his brother and sister, and none of his friends drowned in a canal. He has never stayed overnight in a hospital and has no emotional scars from his upbringing, except a slight, lingering resentment that Anita Barker once mocked the stabilisers on his bike. Where Did It All Go Right? is a jealous memoir written by someone who occasionally wishes life had dealt him a few more juicy, marketable blows. The author delves back into his first 18 years in search of something, anything, that might have left him deeply and irreparably damaged. With tales of bikes, telly, sweets, good health, domestic harmony, and happy holidays, Andrew aims to bring a little hope to all those out there living with the emotional after-effects of a really nice childhood. Andrew Collins kept a diary from the age of five, so he really can remember what he had for tea every day and what he did at school. Excerpts from his diary run throughout the book, and it is this detail which makes his story so compelling.

His boss is raising stress levels, planning a Black Friday to end all Black Fridays. His family doesn't understand him, and his best friend thinks his new crush is a hallucination brought on by watching too many episodes of Doctor Who.
