The Country House Revisited Tereza Topolovská, 2017-08-01 This monograph provides an insight into English country house fiction by twentieth and twenty first century authors with a focus on the works of E M Forster Evelyn Waugh Iris Murdoch Alan Hollinghurst and Sarah Waters The country house is explored within the wider social and cultural contexts of the period including contemporary architectural development The variety of literary depictions of the country house reflects the physical diversification of buildings which can be classified as such from smaller variants to formerly grand residences on the brink of physical collapse Within the scope of contemporary fiction architecture and poetics of space the country house given its uniquely integrating and exceptionally evocative qualities accentuates different conceptions of dwelling Consequently literary portrayals of the country house can be seen as both prefiguring and reflecting the contemporary practice of living
