Pomerantz,Evelyn Birge Vitz,2017-12-05 Insights into power spectacle and performance in the courts of Middle Eastern rulers In recent decades scholars have produced much new research on courtly life in medieval Europe but studies on imperial and royal courts across the Middle East have received much less attention particularly for courts before 1500AD In the Presence of Power however sheds new light on courtly life across the region This insightful exploratory collection of essays uncovers surprising commonalities across a broad swath of cultures The pre modern period in this volume includes roughly seven centuries opening with the first dynasty of Islam the Umayyads whose reign marked an important watershed for Late Antique culture and closing with the rule of the so called gunpowder empires of the Ottomans and Safavids over much of the Near East in the sixteenth century In between this volume locates similarities across the Western Medieval Byzantine and Islamicate courtly cultures spanning a vast history and geography to demonstrate the important cross pollinations that occurred between their literary and cultural legacies This study does not presume the presence of one shared courtly institution across time and space but rather seeks to understand the different ways in which contemporaries experienced and spoke about these places of power and performance Adopting a very broad view of performances In the Presence of Power includes exuberant expressions of love in Arabic stories shadow plays in Mamluk Cairo Byzantine storytelling religious food traditions in Christian Cyprus advice and political and ethnographic performances of power

Court Ceremonies and Rituals of Power in Byzantium and the Medieval Mediterranean, 2013-09-19 Publicly performed rituals and ceremonies form an essential part of medieval political practice and court culture This applies not only to western feudal societies but also to the linguistically and culturally highly diversified environment of Byzantium and the Mediterranean basin The continuity of Roman traditions and cross fertilization between various influences originating from Constantinople Armenia the Arab Muslim World and western kingdoms and naval powers provide the framework for a distinct sphere of ritual expression and ceremonial performance This collective volume placing Byzantium into a comparative perspective between East and West examines transformative processes from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages succession procedures in different political contexts phenomena of cross cultural appropriation and exchange and the representation of rituals in art and literature Contributors are Maria Kantirea Martin Hinterberger Walter Pohl Andrew Marsham Björn Weiler Eric J Hanne Antonia Giannouli Jo Van Steenbergen Stefan Burkhardt Ioanna Rapti Jonathan Shepard Panagiotis Agapitos Henry Maguire Christine Angelidi and Margaret Mullett
