Cree and Christian Clinton N. Westman, 2022 2022 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Shortlisted for the 2023 Saskatchewan Book Award for Scholarly Writing Cree and Christian develops and applies new ethnographic approaches for understanding the reception and indigenization of Christianity particularly through an examination of Pentecostalism in northern Alberta Clinton N Westman draws on historical records and his own long term ethnographic research in Cree communities to explore questions of historical change cultural continuity linguistic practices in ritual and the degree to which Indigenous identity is implicated

Subsistence under Capitalism James Murton,Dean Bavington,Carly Dokis,2016-06-01 The complex relationship between subsistence practices and formal markets should be a growing matter of concern for those uneasy with the stark contrast between commercial and local food systems especially since self provisioning has never been limited to the margins In fact subsistence occupies a central space in local and global economies and networks Bringing together essays from diverse disciplines to reflect on the meaning of subsistence in theory and in practice in historical and contemporary contexts in Canada and beyond Subsistence under Capitalism is a collective study of the ways in which local food systems have been relegated to the shadows by the drive to establish and expand capitalist markets Considering fishing farming and other forms of subsistence provisioning the essays in this volume document the persistence of these practices despite capitalist government policies that actively seek to subsume them Presenting viable alternatives to capitalist production and exchange the contributors explain the critical interplay between politics local provisioning and the ultimate survival of society Illuminating new kinds of engagements with nature and community Subsistence under Capitalism looks behind the scenes of subsistence food provisioning to challenge the dominant economic paradigm of the modern world Gender and Noun Classification Eric Mathieu,Myriam Dali,Gita Zareikar,2019 This volume explores the many ways by which natural languages categorize nouns into genders or classes The findings in the volume have significant implications for syntactic theory and theories of interpretation and contribute to a greater understanding of the interplay between inflection and derivation
